A Superior Farm to Lease.

A CHANCE NOT OFTEN MET WITH.

WE HAVE A FARM OF 2080 ACRES on the Illinois Central Railroad, near to a depot, 100 miles from Chicago, extra superior soil, about 600 acres broken and ready for cultivation; between three and four hundred acres of dense heavy timber; a fine spring creek (which causes the timber) running through it. For natural advantages and facilities to market, this farm cannot be surpassed in the State, and is hard to duplicate. We will lease it for a term of years to one or more good farmers, able to develope it upon unusually favorable terms, or we will make a very profitable arrangement with a party or parties, having the means, who will go upon it immediately and improve and develope it, giving him or them a half interest at strictly original figures, which will pay over one hundred per cent profit as soon as business revives.

Douglas Becoming Desperate.

It is a fact well known to the world that Douglas coöperated with the Republican members of Congress at the last session to defeat the Administration on the Lecompton issue. It is a fact equally well known by leading Republicans in Illinois, that strenuous efforts have been made by leading Republicans in New York and New England, including some of the most influential journals of the party, to induce the Republicans of Illinois to support Mr. Douglas for the Senate, all of which outside influence has been based upon the hypothesis that Mr. Douglas has signified, either directly or by implication, the intention of abandoning the Democratic party, and coöperating henceforth with a party to be formed from the entire opposition to the Administration. The Republicans of Illinois, however, believing that they knew the man too well to trust to any pledges he might make while his election remained in doubt, refused to walk into the trap prepared for them. Their wisdom and prudence have been signally vindicated by the course of Mr. Douglas since his return to the State. He has furiously and bitterly denounced Republicans throughout the whole canvass, and having become satisfied that he has nothing more to hope from them, he is doing now, upon the stump, what he would be sure to do in the Senate next winter were the Republicans to aid in reelecting him—denying his whole record of last winter. Here is the latest evidence on this point, taken from the letter of a correspondent of the Missouri Republican, who heard him speak at Benton, in Franklin County, on the 16th inst.

> He (Douglas) then proceeded to notice and denounce the charge which has been circulated, that he, during last winter, had held consultation with the Black Republicans, and attended their caucuses at his own house or elsewhere. He denounced the charge as an unmitigated falsehood, declared that he had never attended a Black Republican caucus in his life, at his own house or elsewhere, nor had he ever given any assurance, directly or indirectly, to any mortal man, that in any event or contingency he would ever abandon the principles of the Democratic party, or support any other than those which he had always proclaimed in the Nebraska bill as he avowed them in the Senate of the United States and since his return home. His statements on these points were full, direct and conclusive. He characterized this as one of the inventions of the Abolitionists and their allies, to create distrust in the Democratic party, and thus weaken it for the benefit of the Black Republicans.

These statements conclusively show the desperate condition in which Mr. Douglas considers his cause to be placed. They are a complete falsification of the unwritten history of the struggle over the Lecompton swindle, and would never have been indulged in by Douglas had he not been convinced of the necessity of the most desperate means to save himself with the Democracy. We commend Mr. Douglas' statements to our Republican friends, both at home and abroad, who have been betrayed into sympathy for Douglas.

Frank Blair and Douglas.

A letter written during the last session of Congress by Mr. Blair of Missouri, to B. Gratz Brown, editor of the Missouri Democrat, it seems has fallen into the hands of a third party, who has made the general purport of it public without the agency or assent of either Blair or Brown. The result has been a very great sensation and fluttering among sundry democrats of Missouri, the St. Louis Republican included, who have been disposed to side with Douglas in his fight with the Administration, inasmuch as the aforesaid letter makes certain revelations touching the movements of that Senator last winter. Mr. Kennett disputes the accuracy of the statements through the Republican, while Mr. Sturgeon (both Democrats,) supports it. The latter appears to have the best of the argument, and seemingly has even stronger proofs in reserve than those which he has yet employed. The following query by Mr. Sturgeon is significant:

> I call upon him, (Mr. Blair,) and I call upon Mr. Colfax, of Indiana, to state whether Mr. Blair did not receive an invitation through Mr. Mr. Colfax, member of Congress from Indiana, to call upon him, Douglas; and whether the message as it came to him from the lips of Judge Douglas was not: "Tell Mr. Blair I wish to see him: I wish to give him Jim Green's place in the United States Senate?" I call upon Mr. Blair to state all that took place at that interview.

Meanwhile the Republican implores Mr Blair not to leave the Missouri Democracy in suspense relative to a question which so vitally concerns them, and which is calculated "to sow disunion between the Douglas and Buchanan branches of the Democracy." Mr. Blair makes no answer, but the Missouri Democrat, speaking for him, says:

> Mr. Blair authorizes us to say that he stands ready to make good all the statements, whatever they may be, in his letter, whenever any of them shall be denied by Senator Douglas. He does not consider himself under any obligations to say, either for the satisfaction of the Republican, or any other person "laboring under difficulties," whether the purport of the letter has been correctly given or not. If, however, Mr. Douglas shall appeal to him to state whether the letter is correctly given or not, we have no doubt that Mr. Blair will speak out at once.

Mr. Blair, then, is ready to testify. Will Mr. Douglas call for his testimony.

Two upon One.

Col. Hacker, the decapitated Collector of Cairo, is the only white man in the State who still clings to Popular Sovereignty. Being asked a few days ago how he reconciled it with the Dred Scott decision, he replied, "d—n the Dred Scott decision. There are only two points decided by it anyhow: 1st, That a nigger isn't a citizen; and 2d, That he can't bring a suit in a United States Court!"

The Colonel's two points remind us of the old lady's one point of censure against the curate of her parish. She said he had only one fault in the world—he would fight when he got drunk.

For Congress—4th District.

The National Democrats of the 4th District, (Kellogg's) have nominated for Congress Judge Gale of Peoria. We don't think that the Judge will be elected, but we anticipate that he will poll more votes than the Douglas worshippers.

We are informed by a gentleman at Cairo that when Douglas arrived there, he was accompanied to the top of the levee by four white men, and followed by fourteen negroes inquiring whether they had any rights which he was bound to respect.

The Packed Ticket.

Great dissatisfaction exists among many of the Douglasites at the ticket nominated for them by the Sheahan and Tom Dyer clique. They rightly complain that the whole thing was cooked up beforehand by a few individuals, and that the working men of the party were not consulted. They charge that the Convention was packed, and the county precincts practically excluded from all participation in the caucus. They also protest against several of the nominations that were made. They object to S. S. Hayes, who is regarded as unsound and unreliable, and who is no friend of Douglas at heart, as his published speeches abundantly prove. They object to Sherman also, who was until very recently a Republican, but left that party because he could not get nominated for office as often as he desired; and Sherman himself complains that the nomination was thrust upon him without asking his consent to run, and as he stands not the ghost of a chance of an election, he is not anxious to be beaten to gratify Dyer, Sheahan & Co., and foot a heavy assessment besides. Some members of the party complain that it is "cutting it too fat" to thrust upon them a "broken down Know-Nothing," as the Times proved to their satisfaction two years ago, that he was a member of the dark lantern order, and a rabid one at that. In fact, disgust is the prevailing sentiment in the ranks of the Douglas worshippers at the ticket nominated for them, and it is more than likely that very many of them will leave it severely alone on election day.

The Cable All Right Again!

Such was the message from Trinity Bay yesterday. After a Sphinx-like silence of three weeks, signals again pass through it freely from coast to coast, and in two or three weeks more, we are told, it is to be set to work in earnest. We hope the telegraph men are not too sanguine in their anticipations, but this capriciousness on the part of the cable compels a doubt as to its steady usefulness. It would be awkward indeed if it should strike work in the midst of an important dispatch, leaving the operators to guess when it would take up the thread of its message. The same thing occurred in two instances, but only for brief intervals, while the cable was being laid. It is one of the mysteries which it is now the task of science to explain.

Hon. Thomas Hoyne and the Chicago Times.

In our report of the meeting of the National Democracy at Centralia during the progress of the State Fair, a typographical error occurred in a single passage of the speech of Hon. Thomas Hoyne. The passage as printed reads as follows:

> "Why, Mr. H. would ask, is it otherwise in Illinois? He could see no other reason except that a single great liar aspired to make his will and pleasure the 'higher law' of the administration, until his personal griefs became so burdensome to carry alone that he sought to make the Democratic party at home bear some of them."

The word "liar" in the above paragraph is a typographical blunder. We have referred to the manuscript report of the speech, and find Mr. Hoyne's language to have been, "a single great man aspired," &c. We make this explanation in justice to Mr. Hoyne, inasmuch as the Times of yesterday makes the misprint the occasion of a bitter personal attack upon that gentleman.

Our Michigan Correspondence.

KALAMAZOO, Sept. 22, 1858.

EDITORS TRIBUNE: The Republican Convention for the Third Representative District of this State, met here to-day. This is one of the largest Districts in the State, so far as the popular vote is concerned—or, in fact, one of the largest of any of the Districts in any of the States. At the last Congressional election the popular vote on Representative was something over 40,000. The vote is nearly equal to that of population of the States of Rhode Island or of Florida, and the territory embraced is equal to that of the Empire of France. This District has been ably represented in Congress, since 1854, by David S. Walbridge, who, by the way, was the President of the first Republican Convention held in the Union. He has been a straight-out Republican from beginning to end, and during his official career he has never missed an opportunity of recording his vote on the side of freedom. He has positively declined a re-nomination.

The Convention was organized by appointing J. S. Hollister, President, and Henry S. Clubb, Secretary. The result of the first ballot demonstrated the fact that there were about a dozen gentlemen in the field, with from three to twelve votes each, who were willing to serve their country. The second ballot showed about the same result; so, too, with the third, and fifth, and so on.

On the eighteenth ballot, Hon. F. W. Kellogg of Grand Rapids, received a majority of the votes. The nomination was made unanimous. Mr. Kellogg is well known in this State as one of our most popular stump speakers. He has been before the people of both this and the "old country" as a lecturer. In the capacity of a member of the Legislature, he represented Kent county at the last session of that body in this State, with signal ability. He has been engaged in the lumber business for some years past, and is well known to many of the citizens of Chicago. We have every confidence in his ability to represent us well and truly in the next Congress, to which he certainly will be elected.

Extensive preparations are being made for the National Horse Fair which is to be held here on the 13th, 14th and 15th of next month. The Directors of the Association have received assurances from many of the best stock raisers in the Northern States and in Canada, that they will be on hand with their best stock. It will be an excellent and creditable exhibition, the particulars of which you will be duly advised.

The Annual Fair of the Kalamazoo County Agricultural Society commences to-day, and will continue until Friday night. It promises to be a decided success. The entries of stock, etc., are large. This is their thirteenth annual meeting. The Kalamazoo County Society is the oldest association of the kind in the State, not excepting the State Society.

Stuart is now regarded as an out-and-out Lecomptonite and ardent supporter of all the odious measures of the present corrupt National Administration. His term of office as Senator expires next March. It is more than suspected that he is bidding high for a Federal appointment, knowing well that he will be overwhelmingly defeated for the Governorship in the present State canvass.

Yours, &c., JACOBUS.

Chicago, St. Paul and Fond du Lac Railroad.

The great importance of the completion of the great north and northwest route, we are glad to see has begun to be appreciated by our business men, for certainly no road in the country can any way compare with this in advancing the progress of our city, located as it is, commanding the trade and productions of Wisconsin, all of Minnesota and northern Iowa. We are only surprised that our solid men of the city have not before come forward and subscribed to the completion of it, instead of sitting quietly with their purse strings tied, and see an individual struggling with gigantic effort to do what they should have done a year ago. We refer to the Hon. Wm. B. Ogden, who has devoted the last two or three years constantly to bring about this important result. He has even resorted to his private fortune, and left nothing undone in his power to complete this immense feeder to our wealth and prosperity, and all that is wanted now is a trifling assistance from our business men, and we are assured the road could be completed in seventy days, as the grading is nearly done, the ties on the ground, and only the iron is wanted. Come up, now gentlemen, and say you will see the road completed from Chicago to Oshkosh—only about fifty miles is to be laid—and you have accomplished more for yourselves individually, and the city generally, than a whole year of business toil. Will you sit quietly and hear our Milwaukee neighbors chuckling over our misfortune, and their gain? They now are controlling an immense trade that properly and legitimately belongs to us, which we could secure at a very small outlay. Come on now, to the rescue. Chicago now holds the whole Northwest, almost within her grasp, assist her to assist her to reach a little further, and she at once seizes the prize.

Edgar County.

PARIS, Edgar County, Sept. 21, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

The Douglas Postmasters of this county are detaining your paper from subscribers, annoying them in every way they can, and working hard for their idol, the little dodger. If Old Buck is really opposed to Douglas, why don't he cut off the heads of these fellows? They hate him like poison. At some of the offices last week your paper has not been delivered at all, but we suppose has been destroyed to prevent the people reading the broadside it poured into the hulk of Douglasism.

We had our nominations for county offices yesterday. The county was fully represented, and the utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed. Mr. Moreley received almost an unanimous vote on the first ballot. I have scarcely a doubt but that we shall elect him. He is a first-rate man, and an ardent friend of Lincoln. We have been steadily increasing in strength in this county ever since Douglas made his blackguard speech in this place. It disgusted every decent man in the county who heard it.

An excellent feeling exist in this county, between the Republicans and old Whigs. We are all unanimous for old Abe. We know him. He suits us to a dot. The combined opposition will give a long pull, and a strong pull, and a pull altogether, and we shall "flax out" the Douglas worshippers as sure as you are born this fall. Yours for the cause,

EDGAR.

NOTE.—Edgar county voted at the last Presidential election as follows:

Buchanan	1,342
Fremont	952
Fillmore	308—1,260
Buchanan majority	82

[The Lincoln boys can wipe out that handful of a majority if they try, and we have no doubt but they will do their best.—ED. P. & T.]

The Odin Tragedy.

Editors Press and Tribune:

GENTS:—In your issue of the 29th inst., appears an article headed "Odin Tragedy," in which statements occur calculated to injure the character of Mr. A. J. Scott, and wound the feelings of those who look to him for protection and loving kindness in the hour of their deep affliction. Your informant has given to his account of this most unfortunate affair a tone which the facts in the case do not warrant. I have been personally acquainted with both the brothers Scott for several months, and have had frequent opportunities of judging of their character. The elder brother was always sad and melancholy, and I had some business with him ten days before his death, which convinced me that he was at least partially deranged. On Wednesday, before he committed the fatal act, the unfortunate man wandered all night on the prairie, causing the greatest anxiety to his brother, wife and daughter. Mr. A. J. Scott has always, as can be proved by dozens of our principal citizens, treated his brother and his mother's family with kindness, and to me the two brothers always seemed sincerely attached to each other. When the alarm was first given, A. J. Scott was the first who came into the room, when he immediately lifted his brother from under the bed and carried him to an adjoining room, when his strength failed him, and his poignant grief was sufficiently apparent, as I have been informed by gentlemen who were present. It is said that he seemed quite beside himself, rushing here and there in a distracted manner. That he did go to the refreshment stand is quite true; his purpose in going was to close the doors, which could not be done, the passengers refusing to leave. He then returned to the house; nor is it true that he sold articles or conducted himself in the manner stated. That he is incapable of such conduct is clear to all who know him, and it is an act of simple justice for you, gentlemen, to set the matter right. Mr. Scott lived until ten o'clock Sunday, the 19th. If further proof is desirable, you can have it in abundance.

Yours, etc., CHAS. KENNICOTT.

The Canvass in the Fifth District.

Morris Uses the Times' Argument, "You Lie," and is Knocked Down, Platform and all, by Grimshaw.

Col. ISAAC N. MORRIS, Douglas candidate for Congress in the Quincy District, met GRIMSHAW, Republican nominee, at Nauvoo, on the 17th, for a public discussion. Mr. GRIMSHAW concluded a two hours' speech, amid the loud huzzas of his friends, when MORRIS mounted the stand and attempted a reply. What followed is thus described by the Quincy Whig, of the 22d:

> Morris proceeded for about an hour and a half, during which time he frequently interrogated Grimshaw and was promptly answered by him. Mr. Morris had but little to say about his official career, or about his great Congressional speech. He stated that he allowed his record to speak for itself. He dealt considerably in personal matters, charging in his remarks that Grimshaw was a Know Nothing, and at another time alleging that Mr. G. was an Irishman. Mr. Morris finally proceeded to charge that Grimshaw had read garbled extracts from public documents. To which Grimshaw responded that if he (Morris) charged him with reading garbled extracts from public documents, he charged what was not so. To which Mr. Morris responded, "You are a liar!" Mr. Grimshaw, who was standing about fifteen feet from the stand, immediately walked on to the stand, took the chivalrous Morris by the throat, and dealt a blow at the gentleman's head which would have been a settler had it proved effectual, but fortunately for Col. Morris, the staging gave way, and Morris sank down with it, without any damage, saving the loss of his spectacles, which were smashed in the conflict. Prompt interference came to the rescue of Mr. Morris, and he was saved from a thrashing and permitted to go on with his twaddle until about 12 o'clock.
> It is due to the citizens of Nauvoo to state that neither Democrats nor Republicans were disposed to encourage or in any way increase the difficulty between these gentlemen. Mr. Grimshaw was treated with courtesy and kindness by the Democrats both before and after the occurrence. Both Democrats and Republicans appeared anxious to have quiet and hear both the gentleman through their remarks. A few Democrats, perhaps half a dozen or more, made some considerable noise at the close of Morris' speech, and made some demonstrations towards Col. Grimshaw, but it did not amount to anything, and certainly it should not be made as a grave charge against those persons, as they were blindly excited with liquor.

Meeting of Bank Commissioners.

The Board of State Bank Commissioners met at Iowa City on Wednesday last, the 15th inst., according to adjournment. Present: Ezekiel Clark, of this city, President; C. H. Booth, of Dubuque; W. J. Gatling, of Polk; Elihu Baker, of Linn; John W. Dutton, of Muscatine; Wm. L. Dart, of Mahaska; E. T. Edginton, of Lucas; E. H. Harrison, of Lee; C. W. Slagel, of Jefferson. Pleasant, Council Bluffs, Sioux City and Grinnell, and that agents have been appointed by the Board to examine into the condition, etc., of the associations whose applications and certificates were in accordance with the law, and to report to the Board at its next meeting, at which time further action will be taken upon such applications. The Board adjourned to meet in this city on Wednesday, the 6th day of October next.—Iowa City Rep., 22d.

Destructive Fire.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The works of the Empire Stone Dressing mills were burned this evening together with a saw mill on the premises and a large stock of dressed and undressed lumber.

The premises occupied the whole square bounded by 29th and 30th streets, 1st Avenue and East River, and were covered with buildings, lumber and other stock. The fire commenced at 6 o'clock and was burning fiercely at 10 o'clock. The buildings are all down. Loss very heavy.

Arrival from Utah.

WASHINGTON, 23d.—Capt. Marcy arrived here to-day, direct from Utah. He made the journey in thirty-eight days, and is the first officer returned since the army entered Utah. He met 3,200 wagons, carrying five thousand pounds each, and drawn by 40,000 oxen. These oxen were dying all along the road. Capt. M. believes the army will have to stay in Utah, or there will be further trouble with the Mormons.

SAVANNAH, Ga., 23d.—The steamer Catherine from New York, for Nicaragua, has put in here for coal.

Democratic Conventions.

PEORIA, Sept. 23.—The Administration Democratic Congressional Convention held here to-day nominated Hon. Judge Gale for Congress. The Legislative Convention nominated W. W. McReynolds and Washington Carrington for the Legislature. The Convention also made regular nominations.

The Paraguay Expedition.

NORFOLK, Sept. 23.—The steamers Water Witch, Fulton and Arctic and the sloop of war Preble, of the Paraguay Expedition, arrived here last night.

Another fact for Advertisers.

The circulation of the WEEKLY PRESS AND TRIBUNE has gone up to Twenty Thousand, and the cry is "still they come." No paper in the whole West approaches this circulation.

The negro burglar arrested at Milwaukee is to be examined on Monday.

PERSONAL.—Alderman Wahl was yesterday married to Miss Anthonie Guenther, of Milwaukee. Mr. Wahl is a Republican Alderman representing the Eighth Ward.

Somebody helped himself to cigars and small change at a cigar store on Randolph street the other night. Ditto to a lot of carpenter's tools from a shop on Post Office alley.

On Wednesday an employee of Messrs. Sturges & Buckingham, at their warehouse, found himself a grain astonished by being passed down through one of their monster bins the whole height of the building, in a perfect avalanche of wheat. He came out unhurt, but a leetle grain astonished we presume.

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT.—Mr. Unger announces his second Concert of the season on Friday—to-morrow evening at Metropolitan Hall. He will be assisted by Mrs. Maria Becker, the soprano; Mrs. Bandt, the pianist, and Mr. Currie. The orchestra will consist of the Great Western Band, Unger's old Orchestra, and a number of amateurs.

CLEARANCE.—A chap named "Wash" Hume in the middle of a term of 200 days at Bridewell, was borrowed from that institution yesterday to give testimony in a case in the Police Court. He gave in his testimony and gently slipped away. It is feared he mistook his way as at the latest accounts he hadn't reached the Bridewell. Singular.

The Tuesday afternoon train from Janesville over the Ch., St. P. and F. du L. R. R. ran the ninety-two miles, making nineteen stops, in two hours and forty minutes. Running time over fifty miles per hour. And—still faster—the train which left this city yesterday at 9 A. M., with the President and Directors of the Company on board, reached Janesville at 10:48, making four stoppages and running the ninety-two miles in one hour and forty-eight minutes. The engine was the "William B. Ogden," the engineer Charles T. Webber. Quick traveling, that.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—We understand an appropriate demonstration is to come off in Metropolitan Hall on Tuesday evening next in honor of the recent victory of John B. Gough over his English accusers. A large and enthusiastic meeting will doubtless pay a willing tribute to his many virtues, and rejoice that the caused to which his best energies and talents are given has not suffered through his alledged inadvertencies. Full particulars of the trial, Gough versus Lees, will be detailed. Eminent speakers expected. Admittance free.

U. G. R. R.—The directors of this line of road who, from necessity and choice, keep dark about its affairs, from time to time demonstrate that the line is open.

On Wednesday evening last quite a stir was created in adjacent circles in this city by the passage of a party over the line, bound through to her Majesty's dominions. The parties, fugitives from Mississippi their flight quickened and its difficulties thickened by a reward of $700 for their recapture, are a man about 30 years of age, an intelligent mulatto, and his wife, about 19 years of age, quite light and good-looking. They escaped sometime since, and have been pursued for nearly two weeks.

He arrived here on Wednesday morning with the pursuers hard upon their track, and were traced to a house on Madison street. Thence, while the house was closely watched, the Underground Railroad agent took them up, and they are reported as safe at Windsor, C. W.

IMPORTANT TO MANUFACTURERS.—It will be of interest to many of our readers to know that G. J. McDougall, Esq., the agent of the celebrated Jonval Turbine Water Wheel, has located himself in this city, which he will make the headquarters for the introduction and supply of this important and valuable invention, throughout the Northwest. By his advertisement in another column the merits claimed for the Wheel are briefly set forth, and the commendation it has everywhere received from scientific and practical men is proof positive that it is all that is claimed for it, and precisely what is required to enlist in the service of the manufacturer and the mechanic, the countless streams of the Northwest. It may be used on a small stream for numerous purposes the farmer will appreciate, it is economical and powerful on larger streams, it will everywhere and in every way prove itself valuable, and indispensable when once introduced.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE FAIR.—We omitted to notice several entries connected with the Fine Arts, which were not to be seen at the Institute Hall, among which we would refer particularly to the fresco painting at the residence of Tuthill King, Esq., entered by Messrs. Jevne & Almini, fresco painters, of this city. For ourselves, we must cordially admit we have seen nothing of the kind before that could in any way compare with it. The truly graceful and chaste style of drawing, the truthful harmony of colors without the least part of gaudy coloring so offensive to the eye of cultivated taste, and the minutely correct execution of the whole painting, make it all that could be desired to suit the tastes of cultivated Americans, and contrasts favorably with the high-colored paintings executed by other artists at the residences of some of our most popular citizens. To those intending to adorn their dwellings with this beautiful style of decorative art, we would earnestly recommend Messrs. Jevne & Almini, feeling confident that every satisfaction will be given.

PEACHES, &c.—We notice samples of this best and dearest of fruits selling at the corners of the streets, and from the fruit dealers, chiefly we presume as souvenirs, as men buy the Telegraph Cable, since who could enjoy a peach at a dime a mouthful, and be unable to enjoy the "pit" at that.

Everybody looks and wonders, regrets the peach trees will be so silly and foolishly stupid as to be betrayed by a kiss, mistake treacherous March or April for their later sisters, and waste their buds and sweetness among retiring snow banks. Will not the Horticultural Societies, Farmers' Clubs, et. al., hasten on the final cause of their lucubrations, and so teach peach trees to number the months that they may do more than bud and blossom. In the meantime we wait peach-less, not speechless.

This fruit is now selling, for the poorest qualities, at five and six dollars per bushel. A small schooner came into our river on Tuesday, from the other side of the lake, with forty baskets of peaches, which went off rapidly at nine dollars per bushel. Verily in these times, in most families, the can'ts will outnumber the cans in the art preservatory of peaches this year.

Muggins' landlady says she she "shall fall back on cranberries." Rather hard—for the cranberries,—the dame being incapable of lightly executing that manœuvre, but our housekeepers will very generally give their usual liberal, and now coveted, stocks of peaches the go-by, and do this or worse.

Speaking of peaches reminds us that we saw and conversed with our fellow citizen, H. Newhall, Esq., at his extensive (future) peach orchard at South Pass, on the Illinois Central Railroad, below Centralia, where he has three thousand nurseling peach trees, which promise something in their line at no distant day. Mr. Newhall has at the same place an extensive vineyard in course of growth and training.

When one remembers that, as measured on our eastern coast, the Ill. Central Railroad traverses north and south the identical number of degrees that divide Albany, N. Y., from Norfolk Va., the promise is a good one that in a few years Chicago will have direct daily communication with the finest fruit regions in the country, and all within the Prairie State.

EIGHTH WARD REPUBLICAN CLUB.—The Republicans of the 8th Ward met yesterday evening at the North Market Hall, and on motion, A. Abbey, Esq., was appointed Chairman, and H. E. Prouty, Secretary.

On motion it was voted to proceed to organize the 8th Ward Republican Club.

On motion it was voted that a committee of five be appointed by the Chair to nominate permanent officers for the Club. They reported the following as such committee:

S. D. Childs, President; J. R. Hugunin, 1st Vice President; W. F. DeWolf, 2d Vice President; Thomas Hale, Treasurer; E. P. Klokker, and David Huth, Secretaries.

On motion they were voted upon separately and unanimously elected, except Thomas Hale, Esq., declined, and H. E. Prouty was thereupon nominated and elected as Treasurer in his place.

It was moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft rules and regulations for the Club, and report at the next meeting. Adopted. Charles Charleston, Alderman Wahl and Wm. H. Stickney were elected the said committee.

A motion to invite all North Siders to organize a great North Side Club was postponed to a future day.

Mr. Stickney was then called upon to address the meeting, and delivered a very effective speech.

The meeting thereupon adjourned until Monday evening, to meet again at Mr. A. Lehder's saloon, on North Clark street.

DAVID HUTH, Sec'y.

German Republican Meeting.

At the regular meeting of the German Republican Club of the 10th Ward, held Saturday, Sept. 18, 1858, the following resolutions were passed unanimously:

In consideration of so much abuse being made by liquor during election times, by candidates soliciting votes—

Resolved, That we will not support any candidate who buys his votes with liquor.

Further, in consideration that as some persons try to force themselves into office, and especially in more subordinate ones, who are not able to hold them on account of their education, be it

Resolved, That we will not support any candidate of whose ability for the respective office we are not satisfactorily convinced; and that we, especially from German candidates, require them to have sufficient knowledge of the English language to at least be able to read and write it.

Resolved, To send a copy of these resolutions to every Republican Association in this city.

Resolved, To publish the same in every Republican paper of this city.

LOUIS STARK, Secretary.
CHICAGO, Sept. 18, 1858.

OUTRAGE UPON A CHICAGO CITIZEN.—A resident of this city, one of our best known and respected merchants, was subjected to an outrage on the New York Central Railroad not long since, in being put off the cars at midnight, at a strange place, under circumstances the right or wrong of which he is determined to test in the courts, as he has both the ability and disposition to do, thus settling again a question of interest to all the traveling public.

The statement of our friend, which he stands abundantly able to maintain by testimony, is that, on his way to New York, intending to stop over at Utica, an acquaintance, also from this city, took the cars at Chittenango, who had lain over at that place, and by whom the former gentleman was informed that in consequence of the conductor having punched his check, he had been compelled on coming on the cars, by the new conductor, to repay his fare, under penalty of being put off the cars if he did not. In order to save a repetition of this trouble and expense, when the conductor came around after leaving Utica, the gentleman who proposed to stop at Schenectady civilly stated the circumstances, exhibited his ticket, good on its face for a ride over the road for a fortnight, and requested either that he would not punch the ticket, or else give him a ticket to stop over as agreed upon, to which the conductor in a most insolent manner replied that he would accede to neither request, but that he should punch the ticket or turn the passenger out of the car. The gentleman very properly declined to submit to all these civilities, whereupon the conductor stopped his train—it being about 12 o'clock at night—and calling in the assistance of a brakeman, succeeded in forcing the gentleman, with great violence and against much remonstrance, off from the train, causing him considerable personal injury, and landing him in a strange country, without his baggage or shelter.

Should the case be brought before the courts, though the point is not a new one, and the course of the conductor was clearly illegal, it will serve to be one of the waymarks to learn Railroad Companies, and through them their agents, caution in such matters.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Geo. C. Bates vs. the Illinois Central Railroad Co.—An order was made yesterday morning that all the witnesses attendant in the cause should be discharged until Monday the 27th, at 9 A. M., at which time they must promptly attend.

The case of the Peoria and Oquawka Railroad Company, now on trial, will consume the remainder of this week.

FINE—VERY.—Mr. J. C. Ure, the excellent gardener for our fellow-citizen, Hon. I. N. Arnold, has sent us some very superb specimens of his Black Hamburgh grapes. They certainly appeal to the highest principles of taste. At the Fair of the Mechanics' Institute, Mr. Ure's success in grape culture, as shown by these specimens of fruit, was universally acknowledged.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

ALL RIGHT AGAIN.

TRINITY BAY, (N. F.) Sept. 23.—We can at last announce the gratifying intelligence that the Atlantic Cable is again in complete working order. Good electrical currents have been passing through the line for the last three days, and though we are not informed of the transmission of any specific messages, it can be stated with accuracy that the signals received from Valentia are as positive as ever. It is hoped the cable will be ready for business in a few weeks at the farthest.

Steamer Burned at Sea.

HALIFAX, Sept. 22.—The ship Rosenheath, from Glasgow, has arrived here and makes the following report:

On September 15th, latitude 45 deg. 12 min., longitude 41 deg. 18 min., passed a large red bottomed steamer on fire. An hour before, saw a bark pass close alongside of the steamer. Came up with the bark four hours afterwards, and found her to be the Arabian, from Glasgow for Halifax. She reported that there was no person on board.

The steamer appeared to be American built, and had a very short bowsprit. Her engines worked through the upper deck, and a large beam above the deck was still standing. Could not learn her name, as a strong north-east gale was blowing at the time.

HALIFAX, Sept. 23.—The Rosenheath was not near enough to the burning steamer to observe her particularly, and her officers know nothing more than that imparted by the Arabian. They cannot say whether she was iron or wood, paddle or screw. We will have all the particulars upon the arrival of the Arabian now hourly expected.

From the African Squadron.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—A private letter from an officer on board the sloop-of-war Dale, dated Porto Praya, Aug. 17th, states the health of the African squadron generally good.

The seaman was sent to the United States as a criminal, and Surgeon Sherman was dismissed from the squadron by court martial.

Douglas Extending the Area of Freedom.

Mr. Douglas' marvellous expedients for extending the area of freedom have never, since their earliest development, ceased to attract public attention. When he became mainly instrumental in breaking down the Missouri Compromise line—a boundary that Slavery never could have overleaped—the excuse for the act was an alleged desire to widen the boundaries of the prospectively Free States. Honest and simple people in 1854 failed to see how the letting down of the fence on one side of a field which was before completely enclosed, could possibly assist in keeping out unruly stock which was known to be running around loose seeking new pasture; but the excuse for the act was that which could most easily be imposed upon a Northern public; hence it was then and has since been steadily insisted upon in private, and not unfrequently in public, by Douglas and his friends, wherever, in these latitudes, they have been heard. The masses have expressed their opinion of this method of extending free territory so frequently and so emphatically that we need not comment on it here. But as the Senator's second plan for accomplishing what the people of the North so universally desire, is yet under discussion and is a part of the present canvass, it deserves more elaborate notice at our hands. Senator Trumbull directed public attention to it in his Tremont House speech, and Mr. Lincoln at Charleston came forward with a new elucidation; but the subject is one of such magnitude that it is by no means exhausted. All our readers have heard of that famous sea captain who scuttled his ship and sent her to the bottom with all on board, for the purpose of avoiding an approaching storm; of the obtuse Dutchman who burned his barn, grain and all, to get rid of the rats by which it was infested; of the wise woman who married an ardent and importunate lover for the sake of getting rid of him; but neither the sailor, the Dutchman or the maid can compare with Mr. Douglas who, in pursuit of his favorite idea of circumscribing Slavery and extending Freedom by means of Popular Sovereignty, struck out of that bill the only clause by which Popular Sovereignty and its expected results were made possible.

The people of Illinois might forgive the Senator's overthrow of the Missouri Compromise as one of the mistakes which statesmen may sometimes commit; but when, in following up the blow which the destruction of that time-honored line inflicted upon the cause of Freedom, he made an attack, as insidious as it was traitorous, upon a principle which is as old as the Government itself, an offence was committed for which pardon is impossible. The one act, howmuchsoever Mr. Douglas may writhe under the charge, prove all that his assailants have alleged—that he was a party to the base conspiracy by which the theory and practice of this Government has been changed to serve the interests of Slavery—that the Kansas-Nebraska bill is as great a humbug as its notorious author—that the arguments adduced in its support are fictions and myths—that the pretence that Mr. Douglas has ever had any zeal for the extension and perpetuation of free institutions is a bold and naked falsehood. It proves that the dodger who has artfully deluded the North deserves and will receive the condemnation of all fair-minded men.

More Proof—Mr. Toombs a Witness.

When Mr. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, was in this city a few weeks ago, on a political mission in behalf of his friend Senator Douglas, he was questioned by a Republican gentleman well known here, about the excision of the submission clause from the Toombs-Kansas bill. His reply was frank and manly. "The clause requiring a submission of the constitution to be formed under that bill, got in by mistake and was stricken out purposely," said he. "We intended that that bill should be a finality, and that the State should be admitted without a vote of the people upon their fundamental law. This is the fact, gentlemen; I state it frankly and am willing to defend it." Mr. STEPHENS is not a candidate for the United States Senate before a northern constituency, and he can afford to, as he doubtless does, tell the truth and the whole truth about this controverted matter. But the fact that the submission clause was cut out for a purpose, and that Senator Douglas, Chairman of the Committee on Territories, knew what that purpose was, does not rest upon Mr. STEPHENS' testimony alone. Mr. TOOMBS, the author of the famous bill—the same with whom Mr. DOUGLAS had a consultation before the mutilation was effected—made a speech in Congress in defence of his measure in which the following words occur. We quote from the Appendix to Congressional Globe, for the first session of the 35th Congress, page 127:

"The first twelve sections provided the machinery for executing the bill, so that there should be no dispute as to its fairness.

"The other sections, containing only the formal parts of the bill incident to every enabling act, I cut them off with my scissors from a printed bill before me. The first twelve sections are in my own writing. In the thirteenth section, under the usual clause stating that the following shall be the fundamental conditions of admission, THERE WERE WORDS REQUIRING A SUBMISSION OF THE CONSTITUTION TO THE PEOPLE. That I did not observe. When the bill came up for consideration be-tween some gentlemen of the Committee and myself, there being no provision in the bill for a second election; there being no safeguards for such a popular election; the bill being incongruous as to that purpose, I suggested the striking out of this clause. It was done, as the report shows. It having got there by accident, it was stricken out at my suggestion, as a matter of course. The principles on which that measure was based were these: first that all the legal voters of the Territory should have a fair opportunity, free from force or fraud, to elect a convention, and to make a constitution; and then that they should come into the Union, under that constitution, without referring either the constitution to the people, or the question of admission again to Congress."

Here are two witnesses, both Democrats, one of whom ardently desires Mr. Douglas' re-election. Note their language. They agree that there was a clause in the bill requiring the submission of the constitution to the people of Kansas, for whom it was to be framed. They agree that the submission was objectionable, and that it was purposely prevented. We reproduce a part of the section in which that submission is made imperative:

"That the following propositions be and the same are hereby offered to the convention of the people of Kansas, when formed, for their free acceptance or rejection, which, if accepted by the convention and ratified by the people at the election for the adoption of the constitution, shall be obligatory upon the United States and upon the said State of Kansas."

Now, in the face of such testimony as is furnished by these Southern men, who have no motive for concealing the truth; in the face of the fact that Judge Douglas was chairman of the committee to which the bill was referred and that he reported it back with the submission clause struck out—that he supported it with his voice and vote, with a full knowledge that the exercise of popular sovereignty was impossible under its provisions—what shall we say to his mendacious denials of his share in this transaction? They need no comment, other than that which the reader himself will furnish. They need no designation by epithet that the reader's own indignation will not suggest. We call the attention of the Times and of Mr. Douglas himself to the additional proof which Mr. Toombs furnishes.

Popular Sovereignty.

Where it has gone to, or how it fares,
Nobody knows, and nobody cares.—Old Epitaph.

"Popular Sovereignty" has fallen into the sere and yellow leaf. Nay, more; it has lived all the days of its life; it has died and made no sign; the places which knew it once shall know it no more forever. Douglas has quit gassing about it, and his followers have ceased parading it on their banners at his public meetings. Dred Scott has rolled his ponderous weight over it and squelched it in the dust. A humbug in the beginning—a lie with intent to defraud—it has ceased to deceive the feeblest intellect, and those who once obtained office under its spacious riddles are now the most nimble and voluble in crying "stop thief!" and lecturing the rising generation on the henfousness of the great defunct.

A few weeks ago a distinguished Senator—distinguished above all things else for the discovery that the right to drive niggers in chain-gangs over the prairies of Kansas was "the right of people to govern themselves"—returned to Illinois, and his friends made a great Popular Sovereignty demonstration over the event. The trumpets brayed Popular Sovereignty; the banners flouted Popular Sovereignty; the fire works illuminated Popular Sovereignty; the rockets fizzed and cracked Popular Sovereignty, hundreds of feet in the air. The Senator landed Popular Sovereignty to the extent of the appetite of the popular sovereigns, and a trifle more. But Popular Sovereignty spluttered out with the fire-works. It was blown away by the cannon; it went up with the rockets, and never came down again. The Senator had the sagacity to perceive that the old thing was jaded. It would never carry him another season without depositing its bones and its rider in a common ditch. Hence "Nigger Equality" was brought out, saddled and bridled, and the Senator posted off in the rain to see his constituents. The farther he has gone from the scene of his opening melodrama the fainter have been his pipings about Popular Sovereignty, until now it would require solemn oaths to prove it had ever had sufficient vitality to cheat a Democrat.

On the other hand the adherents of the Administration, like the Greeks at Ilium, are inveighing against it as "the source of all our woes." They are calling on their gods to remove its pestilential remains from among them. Every argument we used two years ago is now doing new service in the mouths of those who have experience to drive home the shafts of logic. They preach with the knowledge and the understanding. The best temperance lecturer in the world is the reformed drunkard, and the converted burglar makes the most adroit detective. No one can argue more learnedly—no one can carry conviction more plumply to the hearts of his hearers, than a Democrat exposing the snares of Popular Sovereignty.

What shall we say then of the conceded facts that Popular Sovereignty made a President two years ago, and is now kicked to the dogs by universal and unanimous consent? Why, this: that it was conceived in the sin of a conspiracy to make Kansas, and Nebraska Slave States; that it has done all but effect the villainy contemplated by those who hatched it; that it has failed of its end for no want of purpose or energy on their part, and that the collapse of the plot has rendered the tools of the plotters worthless. One thing remains for Popular Sovereignty to do, viz: revenge its death on Stephen A. Douglas. This is its latest mission, and it is accomplishing its work as surely as the hours and minutes fly towards November.

Ninth Congressional District.

D. L. Phillips, of Union county, one of the Fremont Electors for this State in 1856, has taken the stump as Republican candidate for Congress in the Ninth District. Mr. Phillips is a gentleman of fine abilities, a ready and fluent speaker, and is personally very popular in his district. He will make a vigorous canvass, give Mr. John Logan a little more than he can comfortably attend to, and if elected will make an efficient and valuable representative. If any man in the State can revolutionize the Ninth District, Phillips is undoubtedly the man.

Judge Eckels' Charge against Polygamy

It was generally charged upon Judge Eckles, at the time he made his famous charge against Polygamy, that he went beyond his jurisdiction in doing so, there being, as it was asserted, no Territorial law making Polygamy a crime, while there was one recognizing and sanctioning its existence. It turns out, however, that the assertion was untrue in both these respects. There has never been any legal sanction of this feature of Mormonism, while there is a positive law against it upon the statute-book of Utah, enacted by Mormon legislators. Here is its main provision:

"Every person who commits the crime of adultery shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding twenty years and not less than three years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and not less than three hundred dollars, or by both fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Court. And when the crime is committed between parties any one of whom is married, both are guilty of adultry, and shall be punished accordingly. No prosecution for adultery can be commenced but on the complaint of husband or wife."

This law was passed in February, 1852, and the first public avowal of Polygamy as a part of the Mormon system was not made until the following August, when Orson Pratt, as Brigham Young expressed it, "let the cat out of the bag." The Mormons will doubtless contend, when the question is brought to a judicial test—as we take it for granted it will be—that polygamy is not adultery, but that plea cannot hold in any fair construction of law according to the standard authorities.

L'Estafette du Kansas is the title of a small but brisk paper in the French language just established at Leavenworth. It is Republican in the socialistic sense of the term. Its motto is quaint and expressive: "A small journal, but will become great if God shall give it life."

The New York Central Railroad has accepted the arrangement of the Philadelphia Conference, in regard to fares, &c. The Baltimore and Ohio and the Pennsylvania Central have referred it to Committees, with power, which is considered as tantamount to acceptance.

JUDGE DOUGLAS IN VERMILION COUNTY.

Chicago Denounced as the Mother of Abominations—The Democracy Chop-Fallen—Grand Reception of Lincoln.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 21, 1858.

Two months ago the Democratic Central Committee were in possession of the fact that Senator Douglas would address the people of Vermilion, and the country adjoining; since which time they have been busy, resorting to preliminary meetings, flaming handbills, and every other means of political strategy, to get a crowd in honor of the conspicuous coming. Springfield was liberally drawn upon for supplies; the circulars announcing that the "Little Giant" was on a mission to slay the Abolitionists, were printed at the State Register office; the banner (and the only one) stretched across our streets, and the flag that waved in the public square, all were imported from that city. Such is the poverty of Democracy in this part of the State. Their bankruptcy at the polls in November will be still more pitiable, unless they import votes as liberally as they have bills and banners.

A large crowd did come, say four thousand. Our neighbors from Indiana, by railroad, and private conveyances, came in large numbers, comprising, as they did, the bulk of the gathering. Full one half of the people assembled were Republicans. Lincoln badges were so plenty as to attract the attention of Judge Douglas, who paid their wearers compliments for their respectful attention and good-breeding through the two hours he consumed in misrepresenting and abusing them.

There was a vote taken on the special train, of three cars, from Lafayette and this side, which disclosed that a majority was opposed to Democracy as illustrated by Douglas & Co. So much for the crowd and its political complexion.

The Senator was introduced by the Hon. John Pearson in a reception speech of four and three-quarter pages of closely written foolscap. Some of the topics in this fulsome document would be of peculiar interest to the people of Chicago. Lest your citizens should be in doubt as to who this Hon. traducer of your city is, I will state that he was once Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County, where his administration of justice is only distinguished by his encounter with J. Scammon, in which he came off second best, as the Reports of our Supreme Court will show. According to Mr. Pearson, Douglas made Chicago, forced land grants through Congress for the Railroads that begirt her like net-work, opened the Treasury as a man does a reluctant oyster, and forced her to shell out millions of money with which to improve her rivers and harbors, built the Illinois and Michigan "Canawl," and induced foreign capital and industry to wall her streets for miles with costly edifices. Nay, that the unbidden influence of Stephen drives the pulse of life through the thronged avenues of Chicago, to be silenced at his bidding as by the fiat of omnipotence. Yet, "O! base ingratitude," the denizens of that dastardly city refuse to honor the man who made her what she is! Then comes a formal indictment of Chicago, which the ex-Judge of Cook County pettifogs, through in a manner creditable to his palmiest days.

Douglas' speech was almost verbatim the same as that he delivered at Jonesboro. It differed only in this respect, he denied the Trumbull conspiracy charge, declared the Declaration of Independence refers to everybody except white men, and accused Lincoln, by his action in Congress, with taking sides with the enemies of our country in the Mexican war. Those three interpolations of his speech at Jonesboro were asserted with an emphasis which the Judge supposed the crowd would take as proof, and so left to work conviction. With this brief explanation the readers of the PRESS AND TRIBUNE will as well understand what Judge Douglas said to-day as if they were present and heard for themselves.

Need I say how it was received? No cheers greeted the speaker as he took the stand. Not one response interrupted the monotony of the long harangue. Beautiful allusions to historic incidents, fine eulogies clothed in swelling periods and uttered with forensic skill, fell upon the listeners like a glimmer of moonshine upon an iceberg. The speaker would pause at the end of his elaborate sentences, and his speaking eye and begging countenance would crave a cheer. But no, his hearers were against him, and Douglas knew it. I am anxious to see the Senator's good man Friday's report of this meeting. If he makes anything out of it which will enure to the credit of his master, he will display a talent for misrepresentation and downright lying to which his former attempts in this line will be as the small beginning to the grand consummation.

By the six o'clock train from the West came Mr. Lincoln, who is to address the people to-morrow. Very many who heard Douglas today will stay over to hear from the other side. A large crowd was at the depot to receive Mr. Lincoln. When the "tall Sucker" landed on the platform, more good, loud, heartfelt cheers went up in a minute than the united encores for Douglas through the entire day. Some two hundred ladies, dressed in white, filed on either side of the long lane of people through which Lincoln passed in an uncovered carriage, threw flowers in his path. A procession was formed preceded by the band, which escorted Mr. Lincoln to the hospitable mansion of Dr. Fithian and his kind lady, where good welcome awaited him. But the procession must see Lincoln and hear him, just a few words. After a loud call he came to the balcony, and spoke for a few moments to two thousand of the most enthusiastic listeners it was ever my pleasure to witness. But more hereafter. VERMILION.

Lovejoy at Pontiac.

PONTIAC, Ill., Sept. 22, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Yesterday was a great and glorious day for Republicanism in Livingston county. Hon. Owen Lovejoy, our candidate for Congress in this (third) District, addressed the assembled mass in one of his best efforts. He did nobly in defence of the principles of the Republican party, and in refutation of the old and stale charges of the bogus democracy of "negro equality," "amalgamation," &c., &c., which he sent back with redoubled velocity into their own ranks. He went on to show that the policy of this government from its foundation down to 1854 was to legislate for the Territories, prohibiting, in many cases, the introduction of slavery. The applause was truly enthusiastic throughout his speech—that kind of applause that naturally results from having the feelings enlisted in a good and great cause.

At night Judge Ramsay, of Lacon, who used to be a quasi Republican, enlightened the people on the beauties of the "Dred Scott" decision, agreed with "Old Buck" that "Kansas is as much a slave State as Georgia or South Carolina," after which he pitched into Lovejoy for his "negro equality, amalgamation," &c., doctrines. When he was through, Lovejoy was called out and took the Judge through a severe "course of sprouts." Let me say that none of them have any business with Lovejoy, for he is perfectly able to attend to his own affairs in his own way.

Livingston county you may count good for 200 majority for Lincoln and the Republican ticket. This district will return Lovejoy by a rousing majority. LIVINGSTON.

Colfax's District—Trumbull's Speech.

SOUTH BEND, (Ind.) Sept. 21, 1858.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Mr. Colfax's re-election is a decided fact. Our county—St. Joseph—will give him a majority of 1,000 positively, the glory of which we shall largely attribute to Hon. Lyman Trumbull's speech in this place on the 17th instant, which created a great sensation, and awakened the people to their true duty. The Republicans will triumph in the "bloody North," certain.

A POSTED REPUBLICAN.

Expedition of the Colored People to the Niger River.

The Chatham Planet learns that the Association for the colored people of Canada and the United States, Mr. W. H. Day, President, co-operating with an organization in Wisconsin, have concluded to accept of the openings just now appearing for the probable benefit of Africa, and of the colored people generally, by commissioning an exploring party to the valley of the Niger. The colored people have now reached a point of advancement which enables them to send men of their own. Of this Niger Valley exploring party, Dr. Martin R. Delany, of Chatham, is the Commissioner, to be assisted by Robert Douglas, Esq., artist and professor, Robert Campbell, Esq., as naturalist. All of these are colored men, the latter two being at present residents of Philadelphia, Pa.

Arrest of a Veteran Rogue.

On Saturday last, a man was arrested at La Porte, having in his possession a sorrel horse, which he confessed that he stole near Centerville, in Lake county—that the horse came to him in the road—that he was tired, and concluded to appropriate the horse to his own use. A few miles from there he stole a saddle, and a ham. He says his name is Joseph Buzzar—he had a certificate in his pocket from the keeper of the Pennsylvania Penitentiary that he had served eleven years in that institution. He has been out of the Penitentiary two years. He had in his possession $423 in gold, $150 in Pennsylvania bank bills, $5 in silver, a certificate of deposit from a Chicago Bank for $140 in gold, and a military land warrant for 160 acres of land. He also has a receipt for coloring horses of any color to suit the fancy. He also had a large number of keys of different patterns, to suit padlocks, tills, drawers, &c.

THE FARM AND THE GARDEN.

Champaign County Fair—Fine Show of Stock—New-York State Fair—Side Shows—Great Attractions—A New Feature in a County Fair—Exciting Reception and Grand Performance in the Ring and on the Stand by the Squatter Sovereign—Finale—Appeal to the People.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

WEST URBANA, September 21, 1858.

This is the first day of the Champaign County Fair at Urbana. The grounds are well chosen, containing forty acres, with a due proportion of grove and prairie, and will compare well with any fair grounds in the State. A fine spring wells up near the centre of the ground and goes murmuring along under the leafy canopy, singing its own sweet music to the cadence of the tiny warblers along its banks, adding to the beauty and harmony of the sylvan scene. These grounds are well adapted to the use of our State Society, and in all probability the next State Fair will be held here. The enthusiastic farmers and stock-growers of this county will make the effort, and as the word fail is not in their vocabulary, we may look forward to this point as the next one selected.

It is well known that Champaign county always ranks high for fine stock, and to-day she is more than up to her former reputation, and makes a most creditable show. The show of swine is far ahead of the State Fair in numbers and fully equal in quality. Of farm products, the competition is quite spirited and puts the State Fair a long way behind, while of nursery stock, fruits and flowers, the show is good. Among these, the Urbana Nursery occupies considerable space. Domestic manufactures are well up to the standard of county fairs, and point to the deep interest taken in those institutions by the good housewives of our prairie farmers. Patch-work quilts occupy a large space at our County Fairs, but all have not been able to see the great value some attach to the artistic talent that cuts up whole pieces of prints for the mere fun of sewing the bits together again.

One pen containing three sheep makes but a sorry show in that part of stock-growing. Agricultural implements are well represented, and we also note many articles of mechanical skill of high merit.

On the whole, the show, as an agricultural demonstration, is a good one, and might well give satisfaction to the people. In the show grounds, and mixed up with the useful departments of rural labor, are several tents containing monkey shows, such as alligators, huge snakes, six-legged sheep, (made to order,) two-headed dogs, sea lions, China pigs, animals with human faces, Japan fowls, nondescript wax work, including the twelve apostles at the Last Supper, representing the diet of the Christian era, done in wax, consisting of a leg of Merino mutton; Rhode Island Greenings, Maiden's Blush, and American Golden Russet apples; Bartlett, White Doyenne, and Seckel pears; a North river shad, two lake white fish, etc., served up on modern China ware, without knives, forks or spoons. All these combined are a wondrous aid to agriculture, pomology, and natural history.

On Thursday, the 23d, we are to have the grand finale. The premium stock is to be shown in the ring, and as the last swine grunts his adieu, the horses send up their last neigh, the cattle toss up their heads homeward bound, the mules laugh in inharmonious notes, and as the jacks bray forth their last wild notes of triumph; just then, when all give signs of parting, the welkin will ring with tumultuous shouts, a band of music (three drums and a fife) will break "The stillness of the desert air," while the loud-mouthed cannon (6-pounder) will send its echoes through the long aisles of Big Grove, and call from their slumbers the genii of grove and prairie—then will appear in the ring the Great Squatter Sovereign, alias the Little Giant, alias the Great Dwarf, just fresh from his circus lessons. After his performance in the ring, he will exhibit on the stand when the farce of Squatter Sovereignty is to be played in full costume. He is also to perform some feats of legerdemain, such as conjuring two quarts of brandy into a pint bottle, throwing seventy-nine somersets without stopping to liquor, and riding two horses around the ring in opposite directions at the same time; to close with a dissertation on the value of molasses color over that of ebony in withstanding the heat of the ardent sun of the South as it pours its floods of caloric on the brow of labor.

We are a great people, and it will not be long before we shall call to the aid of our agricultural shows negro minstrels, jugglers, thimble-riggers, shoulder-hitters, and other interesting operators of the kind, usually confined to the purlieus of a city. Alas for the day when agriculture has not sufficient attractions to occupy and instruct the farmer for a day without calling in or allowing any of these subjects foreign to the object of the occasion. Have we no men capable and willing to address us on such occasions, to give us lessons in our vocation—is agriculture so well understood that no further improvement is needed, or are these great gatherings of the farmers to be turned from their purpose, to be made the playthings of mountebanks, street organists, monkey shows, or political aspirants? We ask in all soberness if the farmer, the gardener, and mechanic cannot have one day devoted to their exclusive use, without being driven from their own grounds by the raff and rabble of cast-off respectability. Are we to shout "Go it farmer, go it, mountebank, go it demagogue," or shall we put a stop to the further desecration of the farmer's holidays. RURAL.

The Institution for the Blind.

Mr. Joshua Rhoads, Principal of the State Institution for the Blind gives notice, in a recent note, that there is yet room in the Institution for several more pupils, who will be educated at the expense of the State. The Institution, it will be remembered, is located at Jacksonville. Parents or guardians having charge of children of this unfortunate class, who are without the advantages of education, would do well to make an early application. The following is the Principal's

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS:

The annual term commences on the first Wednesday in October of each year, and ends on the second Wednesday in July.

The scholars from Illinois will be provided with boarding, washing, &c., at the expense of the Institution. Their friends will only be required to supply them with proper clothing, and to be at the expense of their travelling to and from the Institution.

Pupils are admitted from other States on the payment of one hundred dollars per term.

In every application for the admission of pupils, answers are to be given to the following questions. If they are carefully and correctly answered, and the answers forwarded to the Principal of the Institution, in Jacksonville, the relatives or friends of the applicant will be informed whether he or she can be admitted, and if admitted at what time.

No blind person should ever be brought to the Institution as a pupil before a letter of admission has been received from the Principal.

Questions:

1. What is the name, age, and residence of the applicant? Who is the nearest friend, and to what post office should a reply be sent?
2. Is the applicant totally blind, or what degree of sight does he or she possess?
3. At what age did the applicant become blind, and from what cause?
4. What instruction has the applicant received?
5. Is the applicant of sound health, and of sufficient mental and bodily capacity to receive instruction?
6. How has the applicant been heretofore employed or maintained?
7. Who will provide clothing for the applicant, and take charge of him or her during the vacation?

No Hope of Thurston.

The Detroit Tribune of Wednesday evening says:

Mr. Bannister, Thurston's companion, returned this afternoon and can bring only the worst tidings. The balloon he identified, and sent the silk of which it was composed to this city last night. He himself remained to search for his friend. To-day he comes back despairingly. He states that the balloon valve, on which Thurston sat, is torn out from the silk of the balloon three quarters of the way around, indicating unerringly that the weight of the unfortunate man was too great for the strength of the sides, and that the silk gave way, when he must have dropped off. His only remaining chance would be to cling to the smooth material of which the balloon was made, and he could not have sustained himself in that manner. When this occurred we can only conjecture, but that it must have been within an hour after he started, seems highly probable. The balloon was seen for nearly two hours with a glass, but it must be remembered that this great body, full sixty feet high, was only the size of a man's hand, when thus visible, and it would be utterly impossible to see the ill-fated man if he had dropped off. Mr. Bannister feels quite positive that he must have fallen before reaching Canada at all.

Six gentlemen came up from Adrian to-day to go down to search for the body of Thurston, but at 3 P. M. they were not decided what course to pursue. They inclined to the belief that his body, if not in the lake, would be found between Knight's Station, where he started, and Monroe.

Railroad Accident.

The Journal of last evening says:

We learn that a passenger train from Galena to Cairo, on the Illinois Central Railroad, met with an accident about two and a half miles north of Mendota, at 12 o'clock last night. The engine, tender and two baggage cars were thrown off the track, and the engine plunged down an embankment some forty feet. The fireman was badly injured, but the engineer, although he went down with the machine, was not hurt. The first passenger car was thrown from the track, but was not turned over, and none of the passengers were injured. The accident was in consequence of the removal of a rail, which is supposed to have been done as our informant expressed it, "by some evil disposed person;" but as we should say, some devil-disposed person.

The Republicans and Americans of the Third Congressional District of Indiana are working together with a will and a determination for the defeat of Hughes, Lecompton Democrat. Dunn's election is regarded as certain.

Personal and Political.

In a recent will case in New York, where a valuable property was bequeathed to the Catholic Church "for the good of the testator's soul," it was held by the court that the language was too indefinite to constitute a valid bequest. Archbishop Hughes having been subjected to some newspaper strictures as the principal claimant, his grace first denies that he made any formal claim, and then characteristically adds:

"This is the nineteenth century, and it is almost out of the question for a man in disposing of his own property, to allude, especially in direct terms, to anything "for the good of his soul." It is true that his Will could not take effect until after his death, and it is equally true that after his death the property which he left could be of no use to his body. It might be (according to the Catholic belief) to his soul. But legislation and judicial interpretation have taken sufficient precautions against any such superstitious allusion."

—Gen. Lane, of Kansas, has a most unfortunate proclivity to falling into personal difficulty of some sort. The latest news from him is that he had been horsewhipped by a lawyer named Quigley and that a challenge of the latter was the consequence.

—Blair's investigations have extended over but a small portion of his distrrict, but he has already ferretted out 400 fraudulent votes for Barrett, and he and his friends do not doubt that the investigation will result in proving his election by 800 majority.

—Sir Edmund Head, Governor General of Canada, is getting into bad odor. He has been hooted in the streets at Toronto, snubbed and coolly treated at Montreal and Quebec, and addresses to the Queen are in circulation demanding his recall. The French dislike him for styling them the "inferior race."

—Walter Hopkins, one of the editors of the New Orleans Courier, died of consumption on the 10th inst., aged 32. He was an Englishman by birth, and is said to have been a man of remarkable talents and a thorough gentleman. He had previously been connected with the Delta and other New Orleans papers.

Mr. Abram a Bona Fide Personage.

Mr. Abram, the volunteer Emancipation candidate for Governor in Virginia, thus pointedly replies to the South's sneering doubt of his existence:

Mr. Pryor, the editor of the South, thinks my card a hoax; he never heard of any such person as Mr. Henry Abram. I wonder if he ever heard of such a firm as Ruffner, Letcher & Company, who were engaged in the laudable undertaking of using their best endeavor to separate Western Virginia from the East, to the end that there should be no slavery in the West. I wonder if he knows honest John Letcher, whom he desires, above all others, to be nominated by the Democratic party, was one of the partners in that patriot concern. I wonder if he knows that Thomas Jefferson, in a letter to Jared Sparks, advocated the gradual extinction of slavery by purchasing the young slaves at a fair but moderate price. I wonder if he knows that James Madison, in a letter to Rev. Mr. Gourlay, said that he had long looked to the public lands as an ample fund to supply the means for purchasing the slaves; and if he does, I wonder if he knows that Madison is the author of the Virginia resolutions of J. Grand, J. J., the father of the State-Rights party. I wonder if he knows that General Harrison advocated the same thing in his famous Vincennes speech in Indiana. Finally, I wonder if he knows that the people of Richmond knew Henry Abram, and will hear him most cheerfully; and that when he stands behind the intellectual rampart of Marshall, Jefferson, Madison and Harrison, the envenomed shaft by which he assails the soundness of my intellect, falls harmless at my feet.

Accident on the Little Miami R. R.—Five Freight Cars Burned.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial, 23d inst.]

The bridge across a small run, one mile above Foster's Crossings, caught fire yesterday afternoon, after the section men had passed that point, and the No. 1 freight train coming west ran upon the burning structure before its progress could be checked. The engine and one car went over safely, when the timbers broke, and the following cars went down until the ravine—some 30 feet across—was filled. Five cars, loaded with fire and whisky, were destroyed. The Superintendent and Road Master of the Western Division were promptly on hand, and were working with such well-directed energy that this morning's trains are not likely to be detained a moment.

The inestimable value of a Railway Telegraph line, such as the Little Miami has secured by arrangement with the Western Union Co., was most apparent yesterday. The No. 1 Express passenger train, bound west, came up to the wreck immediately after its occurrence—about half-past four o'clock. Fifteen minutes later a regular passenger train left the Cincinnati depot. J. A. Burch, General Ticket Agent of the Buffalo & Erie road, and an accomplished telegraph operator, chanced to be among the passengers, who, by cutting the Company's wire and insulating himself (standing in the river which washes the embankment of the road at that point), succeeded in sending a correct message to the operators at Loveland and Cincinnati—to the latter in time for the dispatch of a force of men by the 4:45 P. M. train. This prompt and skillful movement enabled the officers of the road to concentrate all the force needed at the wreck, and saved many hours of time. No railroad company can afford to be without a telegraph wire of its own.

Jefferson and his Daughter Martha.

[From Randall's Life of Jefferson.]

In April, an incident of an interesting character occurred in Mr. Jefferson's family. His oldest daughter, as has been seen, had been educated in the views and feelings of the Church of England. Her mother had zealously moulded her young mind in that direction. Her father had done nothing certainly by word or act to divert it from that channel; and it had flowed on, for aught Martha knew or suspected to the contrary, with his full approbation. If she had then been called upon to state what were her father's religious beliefs, she would have declared that his impressions were that he leaned to the tenets of the church to which his family belonged. The daring and flippant infidelity now rife in French society, disgusted the earnest, serious, naturally reverential girl. The calm seclusion of Panthemont, its examples of serene and holy life, its intellectual associations, wooed her away from the turmoil, and glare, and wickedness, and emptiness without. After meditating on the subject for a time, she wrote her father for his permission to remain in the convent, and to dedicate herself to the duties of a religious life.

For a day or two she received no answer. Then his carriage rolled up to the door of the Abbaye, and poor Martha met her father in a fever of doubts and fears. Never was his smile more benignant and gentle. He had a private interview with the Abbess. He then told his daughters he had come for them. They stepped into his carriage—it rolled away—and Martha's school life was ended.* Henceforth she was introduced into society—and presided, so far as was appropriate to her age, as the mistress of her father's household. But sums paid "to Balbatre for lessons on the harpsichord," to the "guitar master," to the "dancing master," to "Polly's Spanish master," &c., continue to find their place in the account-book, during Mr. Jefferson's further stay in France.

Neither he nor Martha ever, after her first letter on the subject, made the remotest allusion, to each other, to her request to enter a convent. She spoke of it freely, in after years, to her children—and always expressed her full approbation of her father's course on the occasion. She always spoke of her early wish as rather the dictate of a transient sentiment, than a fixed conviction of religious duty; and she warmly applauded the quiet and gentle way which her father took to lead her back to her family, her friends, and her country.

Man Killed.

The Galena Courier states that on Monday morning last, the Chicago bound passenger train of the Illinois Central Railroad, struck an aged man named DeNeur, at Warren, throwing him a distance of thirty feet, and killing him instantly. When the man was seen, every effort was made to stop the train, but without avail. The unfortunate man lived at Nora, and is said to have been deaf.

INTERESTING TO NEWSPAPER PROPRIETORS.—One of the courts of the State of Indiana recently made a decision which is of interest to all newspaper proprietors throughout the country. A controversy existed relative to a charge for advertising between the Commissioners of Hamilton county and the Patriot newspaper. It was held by the Judge "that the published terms of newspapers constitute a contract. If work is given to newspaper publishers without a special contract contravening the published terms, the publisher can charge and receive according to the terms so published. It is not necessary to prove what the work cost worth; the publishers have a right to fix the estimate value of their columns, and if so fixed, no other question need be asked, but the price thus charged can be recovered.

FLORIDA SUGAR PLANTING.—An Alabama paper says that some of the sugar planters of Louisiana are turning their attention to that part of Florida from which the Indians have lately been removed. It is thought that in a few years not only will sugar become one of its principal productions, but that coffee will be successfully cultivated.

DR. MANN'S AGUE BALSAM, UNRIVALLED IN THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE. WHY? BECAUSE SINCE THE FIRST settlements of the rich prairies and fertile valleys of the West, it has been the great study of all Physicians to produce a perfect cure for ague, fever, and all billious diseases, so thoroughly prevalent and so fearfully fatal in their results. The mineral and vegetable kingdoms have heretofore been ransacked in vain except for remedies only partially successful, but this is entirely vegetable and will positively cure. Reader, we defy you to find a case so obstinate that Mann's Ague Balsam will not cure; we do not hesitate to say that the remedy so long sought has at length been found that will never fail. See the following:

Oberlin, Ohio, June 1st, 1858. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents: Having had occasion to use some of your Ague Balsam in my family, I find it the most prompt and efficient remedy I ever saw for the certain cure of ague ever used, and as a strengthening tonic I think it has no equal. Your Ob't Serv't, SAM'L HENDRY.

Olney, Ill., September 20, 1857. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents: Your Ague Balsam is the only remedy that seems to meet the wants of the people of this locality. We have, upon ourselves, all the popular remedies of the day for the cure of intermittents, but Dr. Mann's Balsam sells in preference to all others, from the simple fact that it cures. It is destined to excel all other remedies ever offered. Truly Yours, G. W. HAYNE.

Dr. Mann & Co., Gallon, Ohio—Gents: Your Ague Balsam is the people's own remedy, in this part of the country, for the cure of ague and fever. We have never known it to fail in any case when properly used. It is looked upon as a perfect antidote to malarious diseases. Very Truly Yours, REED & PETTIJOHN, Cairo, Ill., May 15th, 1858.

Seymour, Ind., April 30, 1858. Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co., Gallon, Ohio—Gentlemen: I would say for the benefit of all concerned, that I have a little daughter, about six years of age, that has had the chills ever since last fall; we could do nothing with it until we received your Balsam. We commenced giving it according to directions and are happy to state that she has not had a chill since she commenced taking it. I shall use my exertions in the bounds of my influence to give your Balsam a circulation. Respectfully Yours, N. P. EDWARDS.

S. K. MANN & CO., Proprietors, Gallon, Ohio. O. J. WOOD & CO., St. Louis, Mo., sole wholesale agents for all the Western States and Territories, and sold wholesale by SARGENT & ILSLEY, Chicago, Illinois, and by all good druggists in this county. jy23-3m-3d p

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE. RESPECTING Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam. THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE. DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM is the best remedy for the permanent cure of Chills and Fever, Fever and Ague, Dumb Ague, and all malarious diseases incident to the climate. DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM has never been known to fail where the directions have been strictly followed. DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM is a PURELY VEGETABLE COMPOUND, Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Strychnine, or anything of a poisonous or deleterious nature. DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM has had for years the largest sales of any remedy for a specific disease ever offered to the public. DR. CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM has attained its immense popularity through its own merits, its great power in curing disease, its singular harmlessness and freedom from hurtful ingredients. It can be taken by the helpless infant, vigorous youth and feeble age, ever without injury, and always with benefit.

READ WHAT AGENTS SAY. Dr. H. Symmes, of Mattoon, Ill., under date of Aug. 24, 1858, says: "Send me another lot of Christie's Ague Balsam as I have but two bottles in store, and the demand is on the increase. I am losing every bottle, as yet none have been returned."

J. W. Plummer Druggist, Vinton, Iowa, under date of Aug. 24th, 1857, writes: "Send me half a gross of Christie's Ague Balsam. I have but three bottles on hand and it is selling rapidly. It is the best remedy for Ague I have ever sold."

Mr. A. N. Blackidge, of Metamora, Ind., writes us June 12, 1857, and says that the Balsam has cured in every case where taken. He further says that one case came from the Wabash, Mr. S. W. Swigert, who had the Ague eighteen or twenty months. He insured three bottles to cure him. He took only one bottle and the result was a permanent cure. He had paid about $60 doctor bills.

AFFLICTED FOR YEARS. Delphos, O., Jan. 13, 1858. Messrs. Hunt & Gardner—Gents: I wish to make known to the public an article from which I have derived more benefit than from all other medicines which I have ever used. I have been suffering from Fever and Ague and its effects, for the last five years, during which time I have scarcely enjoyed a day of good health, until I procured from your drug store a bottle of Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam. In a few days I found myself clear of ague and rapidly recovering in health. I have not felt a symptom since I commenced taking it, (about three months,) although constantly exposed to cold weather. To my friends and the public generally, suffering from this disease in any form, I would say, procure a bottle and save health, constitution, and money. Yours, J. B. GROSCOST.

Above are only a few testimonials in favor of CHRISTIE'S AGUE BALSAM, but space forbids publishing more. Price $1 per bottle, or $6 for six bottles.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD, COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS, IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public. These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure. Billious attacks are cured, and, what is better prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator. One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring. Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare. Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness. One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia. One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve sick Headache. Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventative of Cholera. Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness. One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin. One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well. One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhoea in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose. A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents. We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Billious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues. ALL WHO USE IT ARE GIVING THEIR UNANIMOUS TESTIMONY IN ITS FAVOR. Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together. PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE. Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor, No. 345 Broadway, New York. Retailed by all Druggists. Sold, also, by BOLLES, SMITH & CO. and FAHNESTOCK & DAVIS, jy21-ly-a203 118 Randolph street.

FEVER AND AGUE CURED WITHOUT ARSENIC OR QUININE. DR. LEED'S QUININE SUBSTITUTE, or NERVE TONIC is a positive cure for Chills and Fever, And all diseases arising from derangement of the Nervous system, and very successful in preventing YELLOW, PANAMA AND CHAGRES FEVERS. The recipe was discovered by a regularly graduated physician, and is, therefore, entitled to the same confidence as any other physician's prescription. A single trial will prove its efficacy. THE KANSAS CITY REAL ESTATE Association will offer at Public Sale to the highest bidder SIX HUNDRED LOTS IN KANSAS CITY, MO., THE METROPOLIS OF THE FAR WEST! Commencing WEDNESDAY, October 20, 1858, and continuing three days. No city in the West combines greater or more varied advantages, Commercial, Agricultural, and Manufacturing, and few places present indications of such rapid development. THE GEOGRAPHICAL CENTRE OF THE UNION Kansas City is situated at and below the Mouth of the Kansas River, on the Great Angle of the Missouri, after flowing southward more than two thousand miles, leaving Kansas City the nearest point on navigable water to a region the most fertile in the world, and more extensive than the States of Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio combined. RAPID GROWTH OF KANSAS CITY. An insignificant "landing" for Westport and Independence in 1853 with a few hundred inhabitants—Kansas City in 1858 contains a population of 7,000, and as in previous times were so many, and extensive improvements in progress. ITS COMMERCE WITH THE TERRITORY AND THE GREAT PLAINS. The commerce of Kansas City is commensurate with its unrivaled advantages as the gateway of the Territory of Kansas, and the Metropolis of the Plains. The statistics of its trade compiled from the books of its merchants show its business for 1857 Over Six Millions of Dollars! This immense trade which exceeds that of any other city of the same population in the United States, embraces sales and imports to the Territory of Kansas, New Mexico, the Indian country, South-western Missouri, and the regions lying at the base of the Rocky Mountains. NATURAL RAILWAY CENTRE. The terminus of the Pacific Railroad, from St. Louis, has recently been located at Kansas City, and the prospect is certain of its completion in less than two years. Charters have also been obtained for roads to connect Kansas City with the great systems of Eastern Railways stretching westward, from Chicago on the northeast, and Memphis on the southeast. These Railways will converge at nearly equal distances at the mouth of the Kansas River. Kansas City is manifestly the natural starting point of the Great Central Railroad to the Pacific, and as the farthest western central point of Missouri river navigation, it must become the Railroad Emporium of the broad and fertile lands beyond. TERMS OF SALE.—One-third in hand, the balance in one, two and three years, with six per cent. interest per annum. All letters desiring further information will meet with prompt attention if addressed to the Secretary of the Association. J. RIDDLE, President Kansas City Real Estate Association. W. H. KING, Secretary.

EYE AND EAR. DR. UNDERWOOD, FORMERLY OF THE EYE AND EAR Infirmary of Louisville, Ky., and more recently Physician and Surgeon to the Eye and Ear Infirmary, Columbus, Ohio, and author of a "New System of Treating Diseases of the Eye and Ear without the use of the Knife," would announce that he has permanently established an Infirmary in the city of Chicago, Illinois, at SEVENTY-THREE South Clark street, where he will remain in order to afford to those afflicted with diseases of the Eye and Ear, an opportunity of being treated by a system which is entirely new, perfectly safe, and has never been known to fail in effecting permanent cures, especially in all cases of Opthalmia (or inflammation of the eye) whether acute or chronic, whether catarrhal, purulent, scrofulous, or rheumatic. It will also remove all Opacities of the Cornea, whether of a nebulous or albuginous character, or any other external scum, film, or extraneous substance, from the sight of the Eye. The new mode of treatment has never failed of curing Pterygium, Staphyloma and Amaurosis, and has even succeeded in removing Cataract from the Eye, whether Capsular or Lenticular, in a great majority of cases, without the use of the knife or needle. He has been equally successful in his treatment of Diseases of the Ear, with his new system. For skill and success in his profession, the Doctor directs those interested to the following well known citizens of Columbus, Ohio: Capt. E. M. Lilley, Judge Rankin, Capt. Wm. Willis, Rev. Dr. Hulburd, of the Presbyterian Church; and the following members of the Ohio Legislature: Hon. Dr. Fisher, of Perry county, Hon. Patrick Thompson of Coshocton county, Hon. THE KANSAS CITY REAL ESTATE Association will offer at Public Sale to the highest bidder

SIX HUNDRED LOTS

IN KANSAS CITY, MO.,

THE METROPOLIS OF THE FAR WEST!

Commencing WEDNESDAY, October 20, 1858, and continuing three days.

No city in the West combines greater or more varied advantages, Commercial, Agricultural and Manufacturing, and few places present instances of such rapid development.

THE GEOGRAPHICAL CENTER OF THE UNION!

Kansas City is situated at and below the Mouth of the Kansas River, on the Great Angle of the Missouri River, where that stream changes its course for the east after flowing southward more than two thousand miles, leaving Kansas City the nearest point on navigable water to the most fertile in the world, and equal distance from the States of Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio combined.

RAPID GROWTH OF KANSAS CITY.

An insignificant "landing" for Westport and Independence in 1855 with a few hundred inhabitants, Kansas City in 1858 contains a population of 7,000, and its previous lines were so many, and extensive improvements in progress.

ITS COMMERCE WITH THE TERRITORY AND THE GREAT PLAINS.

The commerce of Kansas City is commensurate with its unrivaled advantages as the gateway of the Territory of Kansas, and the Metropolis of the Plains. The statistics of its trade compiled from the books of its merchants show its business for 1857

Over Six Millions of Dollars!

This immense trade which exceeds that of any other city of the same population in the United States, embraces sales and imports to the Territory of Kansas, New Mexico, the Indian country, Southwestern Missouri, and the regions lying at the base of the Rocky Mountains.

NATURAL RAILWAY CENTER.

The terminus of the Pacific Railroad, from St. Louis, has recently been located at Kansas City, and the prospect is certain of its completion in less than two years. Charters have also been obtained for roads to connect Kansas City with the great systems of Eastern Railways, stretching westward, from Chicago on the northeast to Memphis on the southeast. These Railways will converge at nearly equal distances at the mouth of Kansas River. Kansas City is manifestly the natural starting point of the Great Central Railroad to San Francisco, and as the farthest western central point of steamboat navigation, is must become the Railroad focus of the broad and fertile lands beyond.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third in hand, the balance in one, two and three years, with six per cent. interest per annum.

All letters desiring further information will meet with prompt attention if addressed to the Secretary of the Association.

Special Notices.

Persons afflicted with the Fever and Ague should not spare either time, trouble, or expense to procure Dr. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS, whose beneficial effects upon the human system has been clearly proved to those who have been stricken down in a short space of time by this dreadful curse, whose cheeks are wan and meagre, and whose nights are sleepless and fretful, and whose eyes are dim and sunken, with death staring them in the face, this compound must prove a blessing: snatching them as it were from the very mouth of the grave. None can know its true value until they have tested it. When all others have failed, these Bitters have restored the sufferers to pristine health. Their popularity in all the Western and Southern parts should introduce them to all families.

For sale by Druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Holloway's Pills.—Where are their vouchers? The reply is, Where are they not? The Living Language cannot be named in which they have not appeared! All races, in all climes, are subject to Liver Disease, Indigestion, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Asthma and General Debility, and wherever these exist the pills have proved infallible. Sold at the manufactory, No. 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all druggists, at 25c, 63c and $1 per box.

All those who are afflicted with any Chronic disease considered incurable, will receive a LETTER giving information which will insure a speedy and permanent cure by sending their names and one stamp (to prepay postage) to Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the celebrated Chronic Physician, and author of "Medical Common Sense," Saratoga Springs, N. Y. se14-3md&w-a884

Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam.—The excessive heat of the past summer has left almost everybody in a debilitated condition, and therefore liable to billious diseases. The fever and ague is now quite prevalent, and we consider it our duty to call the attention of the public to one of the greatest remedies of the age for all Billious Complaints, such as Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, &c. Unlike nearly all similar preparations, it is free from poisonous substances, and it can be administered to all ages and classes without injurious results.

Use no other Ague Balsam except CHRISTIE'S, as there are several articles by that name which are totally unlike Dr. Christie's, the original inventor. See Advertisement.

BOLLES, SMITH & CO., 14 South Water street, Western Agents, to whom all orders should be addressed.

For sale by druggists generally. se7

Sawyer's Fluid Extract of Bark, an infallible remedy for the Fever and Ague, and the various forms of Billious Diseases, Intermittent, Remittent, Chill Fever and Dumb Ague, having their origin in malaria of very fertile and marshy districts, prepared by Dr. S. S. Sawyer, Druggist and Chemist, and sold by Sawyer, Paine & Co., No. 16 Lake street, Chicago.

This remedy is prepared entirely from vegetable substances, and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anything that can prove injurious to the system. Its effects are those of a deobstruent and tonic, well adapted to restore the healthy action of the Liver and Stomach, whose functions are so generally impaired in this class of diseases.

Quinine and other tonics serve only in many cases to break the chills, but do not remove the diseases of the liver and other organs implicated, on which the chill and Fever depend; hence the usefulness of the "Fluid Extract of Bark," (particularly in regions where Physicians cannot be readily consulted), which contains all the qualities suited to the indications of these maladies.

Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy of the medicine from persons of respectability, have been given to the proprietor—but he does not make use of them as he prefers to have the medicine introduce itself securely by its merits.

Dyspepsia and Fits.—Dr. O. Phillips BROWN, The Great Curer of Consumption, was for several years so badly afflicted with Dyspepsia that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given him by a mere child, while in a trance, has cured everybody who has taken it—never having failed once. It is equally as sure in cases of Fits as Dyspepsia. The ingredients may be found in any Drug Store. I will send this prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. Address DR. O. PHILLIPS BROWN,

Hostetter's Bitters—For sale by Fahnestock & DAVIS, 118 Randolph street. ja14

Charles' London Cordial Gin.—The Original and only London Gin imported. This Gin, distilled in London from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the Vegetable Kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent medical men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic drink in use.

Its delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, the Kidneys and the Bowels, Nervous Debility, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the Southern and Western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and pints thirty-eight cents, by all Druggists, Grocers, Fruiterers, and Country Merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'. NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

A most Valuable Remedy for Headache.—Dr. R. A. Wilson's Tonic Cathartic and Anti-Dyspeptic Pills. Rev. W. G. Howard, Pastor of the 1st Baptist Church, Chicago, in a letter addressed to Messrs. Fahnestock & Davis, dated June 18th, 1858, says:—"During the last twenty years I have made use of a great variety of medicines prescribed by Allopathic and Homœopathic physicians, but all have failed; and I had relinquished all hopes of relief, until I was induced to resort to WILSON'S PILLS. These have effectually relieved me in repeated instances of late, and I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend them to others who are similarly affected." Raymond's Latest Improved

Double Threaded Sewing Machine

WILL GATHER, TUCK, STITCH AND hem as well as any Sewing Machine now in use. It also has many advantages over all cheap machines, and some over the high priced ones, which we shall be happy to show to those who are in want of Sewing Machines. It works with 2 threads, making the double-lock stitch, and when finished it is not "almost," but altogether impossible to drop stitches or break needles.

All are invited to call and see for themselves at 105 Lake street.

A Gem from Longfellow.

The following charming little poem is from Longfellow's new volume, just issued:

CHILDREN.

Come to me, O ye children!
For I hear you at your play,
And the questions that perplexed me
Have vanished quite away.

Ye open the eastern windows,
That look toward the sun,
Where thoughts are singing swallows
And the brooks of morning run.

In your hearts are the birds and the sunshine,
In your thoughts the brooklet's flow,
But in mine is the wind of Autumn
And the first fall of the snow.

Ah! what would the world be to us
If the children were no more?
We should dread the desert behind us
Worse than the dark before.

What the leaves are to the forest,
With light and air for food,
Ere their sweet and tender juices
Have been hardened into wood.

That to the world are children;
Through them it feels the glow
Of a brighter and sunnier climate
Than reaches the trunks below.

Come to me, O ye children!
And whisper in my ear
What the birds and the winds are singing
In your sunny atmosphere.

For what are all our contrivings,
And the wisdom of our books,
When compared with your caresses,
And the gladness of your looks?

Ye are better than all the ballads
That ever were sung or said;
For ye are living poems,
And all the rest are dead.

The Queen Coming to America.

[From the London Times, Sept. 5.]

The arrival of a petition to the Queen from the members of both Houses of Parliament and a great number of persons of station and influence in Canada follows upon our suggestion of a royal visit to America. A great exhibition of the provinces is to be opened next month at Toronto. This colonial Crystal Palace, though less in dimensions, is similar in design to the buildings which enclosed specimens of the world's industry in London and Paris. As the Queen has graced the inauguration of such enterprises with her presence, in her own capital and elsewhere, her Canadian subjects venture to hope for an extension of the royal favor to their rising colony. They reluctantly confess that many difficulties, of which distance is not the least, stand in the way of a personal visit from her Majesty at such a short notice, and therefore they pray that the Prince of Wales may be deputed to represent the royalty of England on an occasion so interesting to Canada. We are assured that the Queen, should she ever cross the Atlantic, "would meet a right loyal reception—a most cordial welcome from the people of Canada of all religions, of all races, and of all parties; for whatever may be their differences on other points, they are all united in a hearty acknowledgment of the virtues of the royal lady to whom they owe allegiance." If they cannot enjoy the gratification of the royal presence in the person of Queen Victoria, they are prepared to demonstrate their loyalty by giving a fitting reception to the Prince of Wales. The enthusiasm and expectation of Canada have spread to the neighboring United States. The New York journals are unanimous in promising a hearty welcome to the Sovereign of the British Empire. They urge that the Queen ought to go to Canada. "Let her come by all means," says the most largely circulated paper in the Union, "and visit her republican cousins too. She would get such a reception in New York just now as never greeted monarch in the world before." The best feeling towards this country prevails in the United States at the present moment, and nothing would more certainly tend to confirm it and make it perpetual than a visit from the Island Queen.

The vast extent of the British Empire is alleged as a reason why the Queen cannot be expected to visit any of the distant dependencies of the Crown. It may be admitted that India, Australia, or New Columbia are beyond the range of royal travelers, unless some new means of locomotion be discovered, but the objection has only a limited application to Canada and the United States. A merchant steamer, starting from Galway, has made the distance from land to land in less than seven days. A vessel of the speed and power of the Victoria and Albert, not encumbered with passengers and cargo, would accomplish the voyage in a shorter time. The "stormy ocean" is not an impassable barrier between the United Kingdom and the American Continent. A few days at sea cannot have any terrors for our Queen, who, indeed, has already proved that she does not fear rough weather. If need be, the Leviathan might be taken up by the Government, and fitted for her Majesty's conveyance across the Atlantic.

The great ship, it is said, would move along like a floating island, unaffected by the loftiest waves of the most tempestuous sea. The people of England would not grudge the expense, and the House of Commons would readily pass the necessary vote. The season is, probably, too far advanced to admit the Queen making the voyage this year, but it is not likely to be long deferred. We are confident that the project has entered the royal mind, and Queen Victoria is not one to postpone the act when the resolution has been deliberately formed. It is a long while since men regarded the crossing of the Atlantic as a formidable undertaking.

Steam navigation has reduced the voyage within the dimensions of an ordinary pleasure excursion. Persons tired of the worn track "up the Rhine," sated with Swiss mountains, and weary of German watering-places, think nothing of packing a portmanteau for an autumn vacation amongst the lakes, forests and prairies of America. Buffalo hunting is nearly as accessible as deer shooting in Scotland. The time usually devoted to her Majesty's annual seclusion at Balmoral would more than suffice for a voyage to America and back, and for a tour through Canada and the United States. There would, doubtless, be some fatigue, but that would be compensated by the novelty and grandeur of the scenery through which the royal party would pass.

Considerations of high policy invite the Queen from the other side of the Atlantic. Her presence would strengthen the union with Canada, and add another link to the ties of sympathy and interest which bind England and the United States in peace and friendship. Mr. Norris, the Canadian Envoy, may fail in the immediate object of his mission, but he will learn the estimation in which the thriving community he represents is held in this country, and our earnest wishes for the rapid development of its resources. He may be able, although he does not persuade the Prince of Wales to accompany him, to bear back a promise that the Queen herself will, at no distant date, personally make acquaintance with her loyal people of Canada.

The Doomed Swedish Editor.

Sometime since, there appeared in many of the papers an account of the condemnation to death, for an atrocious libel on Mademoiselle Mendelsohn, a very respectable young lady, of Mr. Lindhal, an editor of Stockholm, and shortly after a most romantic story of his being pardoned by her intercession at the very steps of the scaffold. The latter narrative was generally believed to be a hoax, for it is not a part of the jurisprudence of most civilized communities to intrust to young ladies the award of life and death, except in cases of heart disease. A foreign correspondent of the New York Times sets matters right. The pardoning story, as originally told, is indeed a canard of the Independance Belge, but there is really in Sweden a law authorising the discharge of libelers at the request of the injured party, and Lindhal having begged Mademoiselle Mendelsohn's pardon, has been released, though alas for romance, she refused to see him, deputizing her father to exercise her merciful prerogative.

Myriads of Grasshoppers Drowned.

The following, from the St. Paul Pioneer, shows that the Red River proved a Red Sea to the grasshoppers the present season:

It seems that about the 20th of June the grasshoppers rose in the air, and in a body attempted to emigrate east of Red River; but lo! and behold! their ambition exceeded their ability, and down they all fell and were drowned in the Red River, whose surface they covered to the depth of three or four inches! This has improved the fisheries on Red River, and the fish now caught, it is said, are gloriously fat. The drowning of the grasshoppers, therefore, not only rejoiced the hearts of all the people of the Red River of the North, but even the fish thereof must have shouted with gladness at the plentiful feast spread before their maws. "Tis an ill wind that blows nobody any good."

The remains of Wells and McComas, two young men who fell while defending Baltimore against the attacks of the British, September 12, 1814, were re-interred with great pomp on Monday last.

COURTSHIP AND MATRIMONY, With other Sketches from

Scenes and Experiences in Social Life,

BY ROBERT MORRIS, ESQ.

(Editor of the Philadelphia Pennsylvania Inquirer.)

Embellished with a magnificent Steel Portrait of the Author, taken from life.

Complete in one large duodecimo volume of 508 pages, neatly bound in cloth, for $1.25, or in two volumes, paper cover, for $1.

Read the following letter from John Grigg, Esq., the retired Bookseller and Publisher, about the book:

Philadelphia, August 12th, 1858.

"T. B. Peterson & Brothers—Gentlemen:—I notice you are about publishing 'Courtship and Matrimony, with other Sketches from Scenes and Experiences in Social Life,' by Robert Morris, Esq.

"From the commencement of my book-selling career, in 1816, to the present day, I have taken a deep interest in the distribution of such books as I thought would promote the welfare and happiness of mankind, and I take this opportunity to say, that no book published in this country (with the exception of the Bible) deserves a more general circulation into every family in our country than the book you now have in press.

"The most important part of education, in my opinion, is the cultivation of the heart, and a perusal of this work of our friend Morris, will produce much good fruit.

"There is no character in it any person will read, but what the man, woman or child will say they are better after reading and reflecting thereon. With very great respect, yours truly, JOHN GRIGG."

Making in all 48 volumes, of portable size in 16mo form. The paper is of fine quality; the stereotyped plates are not old ones repaired, the type having been cast expressly for this work. The Novels are illustrated with capital steel plates, newly engraved in the best manner, after drawings and paintings by the most eminent artists, among whom are Birket, Foster, Darley, Billings, Landseer, Harvey and Faed. This edition contains all the latest notes and corrections of the author, a Glossary and Index, and some curious additions, especially in "Guy Mannering" and the "Bride of Lammermoor," being the fullest edition of the Novels ever published. The notes are placed at the foot of the page—a great convenience to the reader, but that is generally overlooked by the publishers of other editions of Scott's Novels.

For opinions of the Press as to the superiority of Ticknor & Fields' "Illustrated Household Waverly," over all others, see elaborate notices in the New York Tribune, Publishers' Circular, Home Journal, Evening Post, Merchants' Magazine, Mirror, Albion, Herald, Knickerbocker, Putnam's Monthly, Harper's Magazine, Boston Courier, Traveler, Journal, Transcript, Evening Gazette, Christian Periodicals published in the country.

Volume 8 Now Ready,

COL. BENTON'S ABRIDGMENT

OF THE

DEBATES OF CONGRESS.

IT EMBRACES THE PERIOD OF JOHN Quincy Adam's Administration, and consequently contains the celebrated debate on the appointment of representatives to the proposed Diplomatic Congress at Panama. In that debate the great question of International law, and of the proper relations and condition of this country with respect to other States of this Continent, that are again arising in the proposed abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and its kindred subjects, were discussed by some of the ablest minds that this country has produced. Among the debaters on this occasion may be noted such names as Hayne, Robbins of Rhode Island, Woodbury, White of Tennessee, Johnston of Louisiana, Van Buren, Holmes, Randolph. In fact, the discussion was one of the most able that has occurred in our annals. The speech of Col. Benton on this occasion was pronounced by Mr. Randolph "the ablest that had been delivered in Congress since John Marshall's speech in the Jonathan Robbins case," in 1800.

Price per vol. $3 00 in Cloth; $3 50 Law Sheep; $4 50 half Calf.

The Abridgement of the Debates will be completed in 15 vols., 750 pages each, comprising what is now contained in over one hundred volumes. A complete, accurate and convenient Index is to be added to each volume. Subscriptions received by the publishers.

COMMERCIAL.

Commercial and Money Matters.

THURSDAY EVENING, Sept. 23, 1858.

MONEY, EXCHANGE, ETC.—The money market presents no new feature. Exchange is steady at 1 per cent. Gold 1@1½ per cent. Bank discounts 10 per cent as usual. Street rates nominal at 1½@2 per cent. per month, with little doing on any terms.

COMMERCIAL.—There was a good attendance on 'Change to-day, with a better feeling in the Breadstuffs market.

Flour was more active, though not quotably higher. Upwards of 1,100 bbls Spring grades were sold at a range of $3.90@4.50 for Extras, and $3 25@3.75 for Superfine brands.

The Wheat market was active, especially for Winter qualities, which advanced ½@1c per bushel. No. 1 Red sold at $1.06@1.07½ in store, and No. 2 Red, 97@98c in store. No White Winter changed hands. Spring Wheat also improved ½@1c per bushel, with a limited demand at the advanced figures. No. 2 sold at 74@75c in store; Rejected, 58c in store, closing quiet. The total sales foot up 60,000 bu Winter and 31,000 bu Spring.

Corn was in good demand, and under the light receipts of the past few days, holders had the advantage. About 70,000 bushels changed hands at 59@59½c for Canal afloat; 60c for River on board; 57@58c for No. 1 Railroad; and 54½@55c in store for No. 2. The demand for the lower qualities was light.

Oats remain dull. To-day a small lot of old Oats was sold at 44c. Barley quiet at 50@80c. Rye in good demand at 55@60c.

During the past day or two several heavy contracts for Mess Pork have been closed. Yesterday 2,000 bbls Mess were sold at $14.50, deliverable here in the months of December, January and February next; and to-day 1,000 bbls were sold at $15, deliverable here in March and April.

The market for Highwines and Alcohol is dull—the former being nominal at 20c, and the latter at 46c.

Freights have shown some signs of improvement to-day. Vessels were taken at 4c for wheat to Buffalo and 6½c to Oswego.

The Cincinnati Gazette, of yesterday, gives the following summary of the week's markets:

In our general markets trade continues satisfactory in most departments. In dry goods, hardware, &c., the movements have been hardly so lively as last week, but the trade is pretty active, and the season's operations are footing up satisfactorily. In breadstuffs there has been a reaction, and about seventy five per cent. of the late decline has been recovered on wheat and flour. In the receipts there has been a material falling off. Corn is firm and in good demand. Oats have declined. Barley is firm with an improving tendency. Considerable purchases have been made in Canada and Western New York, by consumers, for this place, but this movement has been checked by an advance in prices in those markets. The week's receipts foot up as follows:

Flour, bbls	16,341
Corn, bus	19,657
Barley, bus	5,341
Rye, bus	1,069
Oats, bus	14,386
Wheat, bus	42,3[illegible]

There has been a very material falling off in prices of provisions during the week. As the season draws to a close holders offer their stocks more freely, especially as a corn crop disaster does not seem now to be probable, and the reduction in prices causes an increased demand, but the latter must further materially improve to absorb the present heavy stocks, before the incoming of the new hog crop. So far, since the 1st instant, the exports show a liberal excess over the movements for the corresponding period last year. The figures compare as follows:

		1858.	1857.
Pork and Bacon,	hhds	1,9[illegible]	951
do	do	3,194	681
do	do boxes	3,727	1,557
do	do bbls	1,127	33
do	do lbs	1,904	11,217

The same paper contains the following paragraph relative to the movement in hogs for future delivery:

The movements in hogs for future delivery indicate a decline within the week. There were sellers yesterday, for November, at $5.62½ per 100 lbs net, with few buyers at $5.50. The prospects with reference to the corn crop, and the downward tendency of the provision market, combine to depress the views of hog buyers.

The New York Corn Exchange Reporter, of the 18th, in referring to Chicago summer-packed pork, says:

The ice house pork arriving from Chicago is of very superior quality, by many preferred to the old; indeed the quality is equal to any we have ever seen, which renders the success of this new mode of curing meats beyond a doubt.

Regarding Flour, the N. Y. Corn Exchange Reporter of the 18th says:

"New Upper Lake Flour is scarce, and commands comparatively high rates, and notwithstanding the current high figures obtained, the business proves to be unprofitable to the miller, owing to the light weight of the new wheat—it requiring some seven or eight bushels to make a barrel of good extra flour, instead of five bushels, as last autumn; and to this point we have had particular reference, in estimating the crop the present season. The high prices which prevails for choice extras has sensibly diminished their consumption; and this fact should not be lost sight of, especially as we have a liberal supply of old wheat and flour still on hand throughout the country. We find, on looking through the market carefully that our stock of Western canal flour is much larger than we expected, exceeding 275,000 bbls, and that of Southern is also large. Of the Western canal, some 100,000 bbls are estimated to be unsound; of this a good portion of it is held on speculation, but the bulk of it is held for Western account. All this should go far to prevent rash speculative purchases. At the close we notice a speculative feeling, and a lively demand for the low grades of round hoop extra Ohio.

Chicago Daily Live Stock Market.

THURSDAY EVENING, Sept. 23, 1858.

The receipts of stock at Sherman's Cattle Sale-Yards have been heavy, viz: 41 car loads of Beef Cattle, including 17 car loads of fine Looking Texas Steers, for shipment to the East.

The sales were not so numerous as yesterday, but the market was lively, and prices good. The principal buyers to-day are Chicago packers.

BEEF CATTLE—After sales this afternoon there was a number left over, of inferior quality; for which grade the demand is very light. Our quotations indicate the average price as $2 40 for the good lots—the prices being $2.25, $2.35, $2.45, and $2.65 respectively.

HOGS—The ruling rates are commanded by prime hogs, of which the sales to-day mainly consisted—two lots by Dole to Tabor fetching $4.50 and $4.62½ @ 100 lbs, other lots bringing $4.50. Demand for good hogs is better than the supply. Prices steady—prices a shade better.

SHEEP—No sales to-day. A few left over from Monday's receipts—one good to middling, and some rather poor.

Exclusive of smaller lots and retail transactions, the following are the

It is constructed in a neat, simple, though scientific manner, and its advantages are that it makes deliciously fragrant coffee, even if used by unskillful hands, and retains all the aroma of the berry, that usually escapes in steam when cooked in the old-fashioned way. The draught which it makes is nectar compared with that of old-time coffee pots."

PUMPING ENGINE AND BOILER FOR SALE—The Board of Water Commissioners of the city of Chicago offer for sale the Pumping Engine, Boiler, &c., lately used for supplying Chicago with water. The attention of Mining Companies, or parties contemplating Water Works, and others needing a pumping engine, is invited to this engine.

The engine is capable of supplying fifty thousand people with water, has been but little used, is complete in all its parts as a pumping engine, and both engine and boiler are in good order. The engine is non-condensing and horizontal steam cylinder, 18 inches in diameter and six feet stroke. Pumps are of the same dimensions and double acting. The boilers—two in number—are 30 feet long and 42 inches in diameter; are ordinary cylinder boilers, with two flues in each, and are both in excellent order and complete in all necessary appurtenances. The above will be sold low. The engine can be seen at the Engine House of the Chicago Water Works on application to the Engineer, and all information obtained there or at the Water Works Office. By order of the Board.

THE OYSTER SEASON IN ENGLAND has commenced and the honorable Lords and Cockneys of Her Majesty's realm were, as they supposed, regaling their palates with the best of these Bivalves that either hemisphere afforded. But they have found out their mistake, and the Copper Flavored Oysters of Great Britain are in no demand: they cannot be given away.

This revolution was caused by the advent of a few cases of Hatch, Mann & Co.'s celebrated Baltimore Oysters in the London market, which had been ordered by steamer to be used in the festivities of the Celebration.

Messrs. Hatch, Mann & Co. have opened their Great Western Wholesale Depot at No. 135 North West street (between Clark and Lasalle streets, in Hatch & Co.'s Stoneware Depot), where can be found in their season Shell and Can Oysters, fresh from their beds, and received daily by Express. Also—Spiced and Hermetically Sealed Oysters constantly on hand.

The reputation that H., M. & Co.'s Oysters have acquired in every market during the past four years is a sufficient guarantee that they cannot fail to give satisfaction here or in all other new markets.

All orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

LIGHT!! MORE LIGHT!!

EVERY FAMILY THEIR OWN GAS MAKER.

NO CHEMICAL HUMBUG.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE MADE EXtensive arrangements for supplying any store, public house or private dwelling in the city or suburbs with

J. W. Smith's New Patent Gas Generator.

By means of this exceedingly simple, cheap and convenient arrangement, any family can have, at a cost not to exceed one-fourth the cost of the city gas, a gas far more brilliant and white, and not at all offensive. This is none of the chemical humbugs with which the country is flooded, but genuine Gas, manufactured by means of a simple arrangement (patented) made to attach to any gas pipe, to be used with ordinary gas burners.

THINGS YOU WILL AVOID BY USING THIS GAS.

1st—Three-fourths of all expense.

2d—All offensive odor.

3d—Corroded and poor light.

4th—The annoyance of defective metres, monthly bills, advance deposits, &c.

The following are among the many certificates we have from those using this Gas:

Washington City, D. C., July 1st, 1858.

This may certify that we have been using John W. Smith's Portable Gas Generator, to light our store, which has [illegible] burners, using from 5 to 6 feet per hour to each burner, making the gas every night as we want it. We find this new invention to be a valuable one. For economy, safety and brilliancy it has no equal of any other light now extant. Our gas bill from the Gas Company in this city averaged $26 per month, when this (Smith's) Gas has not cost over $4 or $5 a month, and producing a much stronger and purer light. Our experience with it since the 1st of February last, warrants us in recommending it to all that may wish a cheap and safe light.

E. TUCKER & BRO., Pennsylvania avenue.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—The undersigned are now using in their store, 74 State street, one of J. W. Smith's Portable Gas Generators, and from experiments carefully made by us we are well satisfied that the cost of gas made by this apparatus will not exceed one-fourth the expense of the city gas for an equal number of burners, the capacity of the burners being equal. The light is also whiter and more brilliant, and without offensive odor. The apparatus is exceedingly simple and cheap, and the process of making the gas within the comprehension of the most ordinary mind, all of which facts we shall be happy to demonstrate to any person who may wish, by their calling at our store, 74 State street, at any time between eight o'clock A. M. and nine o'clock P. M. BEECHER & POWELL.

Chicago, June 17th, 1858.

We are well acquainted with the above named gentlemen and know that their dairies are kept as well and [illegible] as any dairies in Illinois that we are acquainted with, and believe that the owners would not, under any circumstances, be guilty of selling impure Milk. Mr. I. H. WARNER:—Yes, I can more than willingly add my testimony to the evidence of Elder Joslyn, and the ex-Mayor Raymond, and others, in your behalf.

"Don't know those men who furnish the milk you sell, Sir, I have known them from the start. Eighteen years ago we were 'sonsters' side by side on what we used to call 'prairie schooners,' but what is now their farms, so that with cultivated grasses, with the best of timothy and clover, and retain the pleasantest memories. "What am I willing to say to this economy of your milk? Why, that you can have Kane county here, reared in pure dietetic—Nature's recompense, of a cheap [illegible] with the capable of adulterating milk as of sweet [illegible] any other way." EDW'D W. [illegible]

A Word to our Reade[illegible]

Our advertisers are so crowding [illegible] favors that we are forced, this mo[illegible] off our subscribers with much less th[illegible] quantity and variety of reading m[illegible] are usually fond of making apolo[illegible] sort, when they have a share in the [illegible] ship of the journal on which they la[illegible] interest excited by the canvass in [illegible] Illinois has become so intense that [illegible] content to make almost any pecuni[illegible] to still give the contest the promi[illegible] serves. But the business public, wh[illegible] PRESS AND TRIBUNE the medium thr[illegible] they reach their customers, canno[illegible] pointed, and we must continue to [illegible] they send. One thing is certain: if [illegible] of our paper, as an advertising me[illegible] tinues to keep pace with its increase [illegible] tion, we shall, though reluctantly, be [illegible] to enlarge the size of our sheet. W[illegible] solidation of the PRESS and the TRIBUN[illegible] fected, the conductors of the new jou[illegible] mined, at whatever cost, to make it [illegible] Chicago and the Northwest. We a[illegible] for the substantial support and solid e[illegible] ment that we are receiving.

SYCAMORE, DeKalb Co. [illegible]

Editors Press and Tribune:

Yesterday was a grand day for the R[illegible] of DeKalb, being the day fixed for the [illegible] Convention, and also for hearing Hon. [illegible] Farnsworth, our candidate for Congres[illegible]

In the County Convention every tow[illegible] resented by its full number of delegates, [illegible] was not a single alternate. After tw[illegible] ballotings William Patten was nominate[illegible] was elected in this district to the Legi[illegible] 1854 by those who were opposed to the [illegible] of the slavery agitation by the "ruthles[illegible] Stephen A. Douglas. Mr. Patten voted [illegible] ball for Senator, and he will now have [illegible] ure of voting for Lincoln. We shall ele[illegible] between fifteen hundred and two thous[illegible] ity. Henry Safford, of South Grove, w[illegible] nated for Sheriff, and Lorenzo Whittema[illegible] oner. The ticket will give very general [illegible] tion. Mr. Patten's principal competito[illegible] Convention were Thos. S. Terrey [illegible] Champlin. Mr. Terry received a very [illegible] support from the DeKalb interest, he [illegible] able to a removal of the county seat; h[illegible] been nominated he would have been cho[illegible] ported by the party in the country, for [illegible] ble men feel that this question can not [illegible] in the next Legislature. This question, [illegible] will not be in issue in this county this [illegible] one idea that the Republicans o[illegible] desire their Representative to [illegible] mind is Abraham Lincoln and him al[illegible] they expect him (and so expressed t[illegible] in their Convention) to refrain from [illegible] in the least manner either the questi[illegible] removal of the county seat, of a divi[illegible] county, or any kindred question calc[illegible] excite local feeling.

Last evening Mr. Farnsworth spo[illegible] Court House to an excessively cro[illegible] dience. Mr. F. did himself great cre[illegible] effort. In a clear and masterly mann[illegible] lyzed the dogmas—or, I should per[illegible] dissected the corpse of "Pop'lar Sove[illegible] and by he demonstrated the fact that the p[illegible] self-government is simply the princ[illegible] enslavement of one man by another. [illegible] las' "unfriendly" method of annulli[illegible] cision of the Supreme Court receiv[illegible] friendly blow from Mr. Farnsworth, [illegible] exceedingly unfriendly manner ga[illegible] Douglas' most exceedingly and extra[illegible] friendly indorsement of the decisio[illegible] Springfield speech. Mr. F. was [illegible] happy in exposing the ridiculousnes[illegible] ritorial squatters being able by " [illegible] demonstrations to prohibit an instituti[illegible] which Mr. Douglas has himself helpe[illegible] the protecting ægis of the Constitut[illegible] word, he proved to the entire satisfac[illegible] audience, which satisfaction was rep[illegible] tested by loud applause, that Popular S[illegible] ty was a cheat.

"Confirmation strong
As proofs of holy writ,"

Mr. Farnsworth gave the Dodger a [illegible] hits on the subject of introducing the [illegible] of negro equality in this canvass, w[illegible] Mr. F., not a Republican in the State [illegible] He exposed, too, the meanness of Dou[illegible] troducing the side issue of negro suffra[illegible] is nowhere advocated by any Republica[illegible] or organs. You will bear in mind, M[illegible] tors, that the Douglas organ here [illegible] broad ground of "negro equality," [illegible] cates the "rights of the negroes to [illegible] have Representatives in Congress." [illegible] ing this fact, you can imagine how [illegible] this speech must have fallen upon th[illegible] the Douglasites among us who have [illegible] ing their master's catchwords abo[illegible] worth's "odious doctrines."

With a glowing tribute to Lincoln, [illegible] worth closed. Please set it down th[illegible] publicans of DeKalb county will vot[illegible] coln, and for Farnsworth, and in [illegible] first an old Whig, the second an [illegible] Party man, and the third an old Dem[illegible] that they are totally unable to see, [illegible] lee and his organs can, wherein they [illegible] on the great vital question of the w[illegible] position to slavery extension.

Yours truly, [illegible]
